One Halloween Night

JEFF MCGUCKIN, 9,
STOUFFVILLE

One Halloween night there was a ghost, a goblin and a skelton.

Every Halloween night they went around the neighbour- hood trying to scare little children.

But every kid they tried to scare just laughed.

The ghost, goblin and the skelton got so mad they stopped scaring people.

They just watched television. They next Halloween they tried to scare people instead of watch television. But they still couldn't scare anybody.

Then some teenage boys scared them. As the ghost, the goblin and the skelton were running away, they tripped over a stick.

When they stood up they were all joined together. Everybody on the street saw them and said 'Ahhh, a monster' and ran way.

Once upon a time there was a Queen that had a boyfriend.

Her princess was beautiful and tender. One day her mother said that she was going shopping for clothes.

But really she went to her boyfriends house. Then she was having so much fun that she forget the time.

Her dauter waited and waited, but she never came.

Because they were attacked by a glue monster. She could not move

From then on, they always stood together on Halloween.

They all learned something that Halloween.

They learned to work together.

because the were stuck by glue. Her boyfriend had a knife and let them free.

Luna the princess had let some ear wigs in the house. The ear wigs were chasing the meat that was people.

The mothers boyfriend come to house, two ear wigs put ther horns in there meat, and they died.

The princess took a michine and buried them in the ground.

The end.
