

UNITED WAY: Goal this year set at $3.9 million
UW half way to goal

BY MIKE ADLER
 STAFF WRITER

With five weeks to go, the United Way of York Region is past the half-way mark. So far, the area's charity umbrella has raised $2.1 million of its $3.9 million target, spokesperson Bronwyn Fraser said yesterday.

"We're in good shape, and if things come in the way they've been going, we're going to meet our goal."

Employees at companies across the region have helped the campaign by buying into bingos, lucky draws and, at Insystems Technologies Inc., a Halloween pot luck luncheon yesterday with a costume contest and pumpkin bowling.

The UW said 100 per cent of the employees at Canada Bread's Circle Division in Concord contributed after getting its message in Cantonese, Punjabi, Polish and English.
