Scraping the Surface looks at cerebral palsy

To shave or not to shave doesn't seem like a life-altering dilemma, but for Lyle Victor Albert, shaving isn't only a function of good grooming; it's an adventure.

Vic is no ordinary guy. His stage show Scraping the Surface is a glimpse into the world of a young man with cerebral palsy, as he wrestles with the question of what to do with the rest of his life.

This hilarious personal account presents the challenges and victories of stepping into adulthood and discovering who we are and who we'd like to be. Vic will be at Markham Theatre Nov. 22, and 23.

Sunday's show is at 8 p.m. and tickets are $12. Call 305-7469 to order.

Monday's performances are for school groups and are at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The performance is suitable for students from Grade 5 through OAC, and runs 45 minutes, with time for questions and answers.

For information or group bookings call Rani Glick at 477-7000, ext. 559.
