Show off dramatic length and coverage this holiday season.

This season, it's all about contradictions: maximum versus minimal coverage, embellishment versus simplicity, millennium edgy style versus cool and classic — and your holiday wardrobe should provide just the right look.

MAXIMUM VS. MINIMUM

Show off dramatic length and coverage with this season's long coats, dresses and pants — or go to the opposite end of the spectrum with simply revealing and barely-there strapless dresses, strappy camisoles and sexy skirts.

EMBELLISHMENT VS. SIMPLICITY

'Tis the season for glamour and romance. This season offers an array of beaded and lace dresses and camisoles as well as simple and easy cashmere-blend sweaters, the camisole, the crew neck, the v-neck and the cardigan — this season's must-have. Silhouettes are slim and sexy. Necklines are plunging and skirts are pencil thin.

THE NEW MILLENNIUM VS. THE CLASSICS

Glam-rock inspire sharp and sleek dressing for the new millennium. High energy is apparent throughout the season with liquid metal stretch dresses, silver splatter painted shells, asymmetrical seamed skirts and three-quarter
