ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

ANDREW HARPER

Andrew was razor-sharp in the goal as the Spirit of Stouffville defeated the Aurora Tigers 6-1 last Thursday night at the Rec Centre. It was the best performance of the year by the Stouffville minor hockey product.

four goals in just three games since joining the Spirit on Nov. 14.

Jesse Johnston with his fourth, Will Chang with his third on a shorthanded effort, and Tucciarone with his 11th rounded out the scoring.

Perrin said the fact that his team is starting to spread its scoring around is taking the pressure off Edgar and Phil Barski.

"Barski and Edgar are always going to get their chances, but in the past two games the other guys are getting their chances too."

He was particularly pleased with the line of Tucciarone, Johnston and Rob Knuff, who combined for five points.

"They led the team early in the game, then everybody picked it up. I double shifted them at the end of the second period and the other guys really fed on that, they saw that they could do it too."

The coach was also delighted with the play of Read, who attended the Spirit training camp this fall before signing with the Georgetown Raiders of the league's Western Conference.

The back-to-back wins evened the Spirit's season record at 11-11-0-1, good for 23 points and seventh place in the conference.

They'll try to make it three wins in a row when they host the ninth-place Shelburne Wolves Thursday night at the rec centre. The Spirit will then face the Markham Waxers at the rec centre on Friday.

year they donate to charitable causes.

The money, which is derived from the town's annual Strawberry Festival tournament, already goes towards sponsoring the town's mite boys' Buttermakers softball team, and the town's New Year's eve and July 1 fireworks.

The Mayor's Youth Program also receives a portion.

Team officials have been asking area churches for leads as to families with special needs.
