

View painting of guardian angel

Residents are being offered an opportunity to see a major work of art before it is contributed to an exhibit in Cracow on the occasion of Pope John Paul II's 80th birthday.

The painting, The Guardian Angel, is of huge proportions. Painted by Italian artist Michele Righetti, it measures four metres by 10 metres.

It represents the guardian angel bringing peace and divine glory to all nations of the earth. More than 70 paintings of this size will be exhibited in Cracow in April.

After Cracow, the exhibit will travel to Italy, Germany, Ukraine, Mexico, Japan, Israel, and the United States.

The Guardian Angel will be on display at the Cathedral of Transfiguration starting on today at 5 p.m. Painter Michele Righetti will be present for the blessing, and a reception displaying other artworks will follow. The display will be held until Dec. 13.

The public may view the artwork Saturdays and Sundays from noon to 4 p.m. and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1 to 3 p.m. at 10350 Woodbine Ave., at Major Mackenzie Drive.
