ABOUT TOWN

Let Sheraton Parkway do the worrying

Couples just have to enjoy their day when they book their wedding with the Sheraton Parkway Hotel

When you let the experts at Sheraton Parkway Toronto North Hotel plan your wedding, the only thing you have to worry about is having an exceptional time.

"We try to make the couple's day worry-free," said Nicole Foster Trieu, the director of catering.

By offering couples wedding packages, all the details are looked after under one roof, saving time and money.

Sheraton Parkway offers an extensive package that includes an air-conditioned banquet hall, (serving 50 to 1,000 people), champagne and fruit punch on arrival, an assortment of hot hors d'oeuvres, a four-course meal and four hours of open bar, candleabra on the head table, candles and flowers on the guest tables, two litres of house wine per table of 10, special bedroom rates for guests, a suite with chilled champagne and breakfast the next morning for the couple and more.

Sheraton Parkway Toronto North Hotel wants to make your wedding a memorable experience.

The Sheraton Parkway also offers a beautiful ceremony room, stunning places to take pictures and a piano lounge where guests can wait.

All the details of the wedding package are set up with staff with over 50 years of combined experience.

Staff will sit down with the couple and discuss the price of the package and (once the price has been set, there will be no additional charges), show them the available rooms, linens and decorations and they discuss the menu. In addition to set menus, the chefs can create menus to suit tastes from any culture. Once the package has been confirmed, a trial dinner is set up so the bride and groom can taste the food and make changes.

For details contact the catering office at 905-882-3101.

The office is open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday to Saturday.

ABOUT TOWN

Come to Col. Mustards - a place where everyone knows your name

You're invited to see why people enjoy going to Col. Mustard's.

The Hwy. 7 British-style pub offers a place where people can come in and meet their friends and neighbours.

"It's a friendly meeting place where everyone is greeted by their name," said Mario Xenophontos, who owns the pub with Nick Kyriacou.

The servers take the time to get to know everyone who comes into the pub.

"When customers come in, the servers will have their drinks waiting for them."

While Col. Mustard's is a wonderful place to meet for a drink after work, it is also a place to hold a lunch meeting or to bring the family for dinner.

NEW MENU WILL BE INTRODUCED IN JANUARY

Presently, Col. Mustard's is in the process of changing its menu. People will still be able to find some of their favourites such as steak and kidney pot pie and Juanita wings - made with the Colonel's secret dry spice, but they will also discover new items.

We will be improving the menu, said Chef Jim Pantaleo. "Some items are lower in fat and fuller in flavour."

People can enjoy pastas as well as south western and mediterranean dishes.

In addition to the new menu, Chef Pantaleo is creating a variety of daily specials. All the dishes are prepared from scratch using the freshest ingredients.

"We are bringing the quality were it should be," said Mario.

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Col. Mustard's offers live entertainment every Saturday night. Twice a month, they will be holding a jam night hosted by The Slammin' Buddhas. Col. Mustard's also has a banquet facility that can accommodate up to 100 people and offer sponsorships for sports teams.

Col. Mustard's is located at 6545 Hwy. 7. For details 294-4925.
