COMMUNITY: Markham resident injured in freak horseback-riding accident

Dance benefits woman in coma

BY JENNIFER BROWN
STAFF WRITER

Having their daughter close to home for the holidays was a wish come true for the Taylor family, and now the 29-year-old woman is in a Toronto hospital receiving the specialized care she needs.

A week after her stay at York County, a bed was found for Tammy Reid-Taylor at the Rehabilitation Institute of Toronto.

Six months ago, a freak accident left the Markham woman in a coma with damage to her brain stem. It also left her in a Vancouver hospital for five months.

But in late November, the family was put on alert Tammy could no longer be accommodated at that facility.

That's when Tammy's father went to the local press and local politician Frank Klees for assistance in getting his daughter home in time for the holidays.

A bed was eventually found at York County Hospital, where Tammy was transferred to on Dec. 2.

"Once we got Tammy to York County we knew it was only temporary," Taylor said.

"It would have been nice to have her a little closer, but certainly it's better than Vancouver."

Once Tammy was properly assessed, a bed was quickly found in the Toronto centre. Unfortunately, the traumatic transfer back from Vancouver and the time away from regular physiotherapy has affected Tammy's progress.

"She's about the same, in fact she slipped a bit with the move and all the holidays. I would say she's at the same level," Taylor said.

To show their support to the family, a group of loyal customers and friends are coming together to host a dance for Tammy Jan. 16 at 8 p.m. at Our Lady of Grace Hall.

Alex Goerk, a long-time customer of the Taylor's Tayson's Meats shop in Aurora, decided he wanted to do something for the family, spokesperson Gerry McDonald said.

The Carlton Show Band will be donating their time as part of the fundraiser.

Tickets for the dance are $20 per person and can be purchased at a number of locations in Aurora including The Royal Canadian Legion, Aurora Firehall, York Region Police Association, R&R Book Bar, Jonathan's Restaurant, Gabriel's Cafe and Blossom's & Bows, or call McDonald at 727-6655.

Doors will open at 8 p.m. There will be a cash bar and luncheon provided.

History has shown that long-term international investing can reduce the effect of market volatility on your investment portfolio, while maximizing the potential for substantial returns. Fidelity International Portfolio Fund's performance confirms that fact:

The Lions Club of Stouffville
P.O. Box 971, Stouffville, Ont. L4A 8A1

December 31st, 1997

To the citizens of Whitchurch-Stouffville,

Each year during the Christmas season, the Stouffville Lions Club, along with some of the town's businesses and residents donate food vouchers, food, toys and clothing to the needy families within our community.

The following supporters helped us gather the goods and prepare the baskets for distribution:

- Canadian Imperial Bank of Canada, 6311 Main Street.
- Birkett and Hassard Insurance Brokers, 6262 Main Street.
- Dr. Allan Turner, Staff & Patients
- Stouffville Credit Union, 6245 Main Street.
- The Co-operators Insurance/Financial, 6358 Main St. Larry Irwin Agent.
- The Tribune, 37 Sandford Dr.
- The Stouffville Sun, 6306 Main Street.
- Scotia Bank, 6323 Main Street.
- Toronto Dominion Bank, 5892 Main St. (A & P Plaza)
- Toronto Dominion Bank, (Downtown)

There were a large number of sponsors this year, which helped by putting together food hampers, purchasing and wrapping gifts. They also donated monies collected from coffee funds and Christmas projects. This greatly eased the financial burden, they were.

- Strategic Information Technology Ltd. Stouffville.
- The Stouffville Lioness Club.
- Stouffville Therapeutic Services
- Cook Canada Inc. Stouffville.
- Toronto Dominion Bank (A & P Plaza)
- Toronto Dominion Bank (Downtown)
- Stouffville Fire Department.

There were a number of donors who asked to be anonymous.

On behalf of the Stouffville Lions Club, I truly thank you for your help and support in Sharing the Spirit of Christmas. I wish you and your group all the best for the New Year.

Yours very truly,

Lion Carl Johnston
Chairman,
Health & Social Services.
