Timber Creek wins three Readers Choice Awards

Now in its seventh year, Timber Creek Lodge keeps getting better — like a good bottle of wine.

Since its inception in 1992, there has been many imitators of the Canadiana, northern concept, but Markham's own Timber Creek was the original.

Featuring a variety of Canadian fare, including cottage country casual classics, regional dishes and speciality dishes from the entire country, Timber Creek Lodge has something for everyone.

This past year, Timber Creek Lodge introduced the Lumberjack Grill, a "you pick, we cook" concept where you go to the ingredients bar, grab a bowl and fill it with your choice of fresh vegetables, legumes, meats and seafood, sauces and spices and then watch as a Lumberjack Cook grills it on the flat top.

The all-you-can-eat option also includes soup, salads and desserts.

MONDAYS ARE THE BEST NIGHT OF THE WEEK

Timber Creek's most popular item is its prime rib of Alberta beef.

Every Monday night, the prime rib dinner is featured at $10.99.

This makes Monday a very popular night as the special comes with a twig bakery basket, a choice of potato and fresh vegetable medley.

Timber Creek's Sunday brunch is the best deal in town.

The restaurant's spread is vast, the quality high and the price — at $9.99 — just right.

When staff talk to people about Timber Creek, it's more than just the food that brings them back, it's the people and the warmth of the atmosphere too.

The cozy, campy log cabin decor, sets the stage for a relaxed evening of good food and excel-

NEW AT TIMBER CREEK LODGE

Comes with soup, salad & dessert!

AN ALL YOU CAN EAT OPTION!

Here's how it works

1. Go up to the Grill and select your favorite ingredients and place them in a bowl!
2. Add your choice of seasonings and sauces and pass the bowl to a Lumberjack Cook.
3. You'll watch as your dish is cooked on our Flat-Top Grill...right in front of you!
4. Pick up your cooked dish and return to your table where your server will have brought Rice or Teriyaki Skillet!
