A GOOD TIME TO CELEBRATE

Pronto Automotive forward Tim Boudreault (left), has a good reason to raise his arms in jubilation as he lit the lamp for the first of his two goals on this shift against The Associates during Saturday's Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association houseleague contest at the rec centre.

Spirit to play rescheduled games reschedule the Thornhill game for a Sunday or a Tuesday night. The Spirit will likely travel to Collingwood for a make-up game on a Tuesday night, team officials said.

Del Zotto Stars in tourney

Michael Del Zotto played a key role in helping the Richmond Hill Stars minor novice AAA's ice its division title at the recent Wayne Gretzky International Minor Hockey Tournament in Brantford.

The Stouffville resident scored a goal in helping the Stars turn back the Brantford Bandits 4-1 in the title game.

Del Zotto also scored twice for the Stars in its 5-1 semi-final win and once in a 9-1 Stars' win over the London Junior Knights.

At the recent 25th annual Barrie Flyers tournament, Del Zotto delivered two goals in five games to help the Stars take the silver medal.

Another local player, Jake Carrick, scored once in five outings for the Stars.

The Spirit take on the Huntsville Wildcats for a home and home set beginning Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the rec centre. The teams tangle in Huntsville Saturday, with the Spirit travelling to Wexford to take on the Raiders on Sunday evening.

The Spirit have defeated the 11th-place Wildcats in both league meetings this season.
