frequently on our trip. Despite the age difference, the Stouffville boys played well and made the Canadian contingent proud. The result was EA, Schongau, 6; Stouffville, 4.

Day five found us traveling to Peissenberg, Germany for our next match. The time difference and the travel finally caught up with the players and a few parents. The score in this game was TSV Peissenberg 5, Stouffville, 1.

The rest of the day was spent shopping, walking Munich and preparing for our New Year's Eve party in the hallways of our tiny hotel. At 11:30 p.m. almost everybody headed outside to the very large Marienplatz Square in the center of Munich. This could be compared to Nathan Phillips Square in Toronto, only larger.

What greeted us there will never be forgotten: A fireworks frenzy. With thousands of festive people lighting rockets and cherry bombs, including a $600,000 display by the German government.

The next day our bus to Rosenheim did not leave until 3 p.m. This was probably our toughest match so far, once again against kids as much as two years older. The score was Starbull, 7, Stouffville, 2.

We travelled to Innsbruck, Austria high in the alps and to Kitzbuhel, Austria. The outdoor rink greeted us amidst the only snow we would see on the whole trip. As our fifth game progressed the sun came out and surrounding us on all sides were snow-capped mountain peaks. The team found its winning ways again: Stouffville, 13, Kitzbuhel, 4.

In Salzburg, Austria a lot of the boys went skiing and snowboarding. Others chose to visit the famous Salzburg Salt Mines. The rest of us soaked up this beautiful city where The Sound of Music was filmed.

Soon, we were on the road again on our way back to the Czech Republic and the city of Plzen for our last two games. The team we met first in Rokany turned out to be 16 and 17 with one 19 year old. After much discussion we decided to take our chances and played the strongest game of the tour. While we lost 9-4, our boys to have competed strongly.

Day 11, the last day of our European adventure, took us to our last hockey game. The rink was jammed with 400 local fans cheering. In fact, our boys had quite an impact on the girls in the crowd. During the game, notes were being dropped over the stands onto the bench for certain players.

After the game, the Stouffville players gave sweaters and sticks to some of the children who were mobbing the boys at the bus. We also left the Czech Republic with a hard fought 4-2 victory. The trip was a wonderful experience.

On behalf of all of the parents, I would like to congratulate the players and coaches for giving us some great hockey. To Joe, Bulgarian Joe, Cornachia, Nela Hunter and all of the parents whose hard work and fundraising made this trip a reality.

STUFFED PORK TENDERLOIN

A very popular item in our Meat Counter is our Stuffed Pork Tenderloin. They're so easy to prepare - just roast them for 45 - 50 minutes in a 350° oven. What's the stuffing? It's our traditional sage and onion stuffing with some diced apricots and prunes added. How do we get the stuffing in without splitting them? That's a trade secret.

No secret about how delicious they are though!

FRESH DOLE BROCCOLI

Both broccoli and cauliflower have been expensive lately, but the short supply has now eased to the point that quality has returned as well. 'Dole' or 'Andy Boy' labels are consistently the best available, except for some (but not all) local broccoli in season. We pay a premium to get this quality. Enjoy it this week.

ONION SOUP

There is something about the flavour of slow and long cooked onions that I find heavenly. When they reach that point of 'melting' they turn to candy it seems to me. Add to this some fine Guinness and you've got an onion soup right from heaven.

MORE ONIONS!

It seems I like onion in any form, and especially sweet onions. When Vidalia onions are available we use them as much as we can - either halved and barbequed, roasted, made into a divine pasta sauce or just on a burger, they're really good. These onions are the closest we can get to Vidalias - they come from South America, they are very sweet and flavourful - and they're available! Get some and go crazy.

WHAT'S FOR DINNER?

This week we have filet mignon which has been roasted, sliced, and drizzled with an awesome (and not intimidating) three peppercorn sauce. It's fully cooked and requires only warming.

WHO DID WIN THE CHOCOLATE SANTA?

I apologize, but I lost the slip of paper with the winners name. It is (drum roll now) Miss Katerina Pollock!

She has been waiting patiently for this announcement before she bites down on it.

THOMPSON SEEDLESS GRAPES

Yesterday we had a visit from a produce man whom I highly respect. After a tour of our fruit and vegetable area, he wondered aloud why he didn't have grapes as nice as ours in his store (the fact is that he probably does - we had just unpacked them). It made me smile a bit because during my time in the business, I've tried to learn (and practice) every tidbit of advice or info I got from this fellow. The main rule is that you buy the best and charge a fair price. These grapes are just an example of this - they are the very best that were available at the food terminal - and as you'll notice, the price is very fair.

A very smooth character! Antoine's Paté is made with Chicken Livers and, among other Seasonings, Port Wine and sherry. As Patés go, it's smooth and rich in texture - very spreadable - and delicious!

What to serve it with? The best choice is our homemade toasted Bagel Chips. A great marriage!

OUR SCONES

Personally I am not a big scone fan but, to my amazement, I'm surrounded by scone lovers - especially Doreen. She pronounced our scones "absolutely delicious". She says it's a really old-fashioned recipe and they can be improved if you heat them 20-30 sec. in your micro and "slather on some butter". We make them daily in our bakery either plain, with raisins, with apple, with strawberries, with cranberries or wild blueberries.
