

COMMUNITY: Injured widow joins baby at local hospital

Trust fund climbs to $13,000

After nearly two long and painful weeks, Angelina Mullings is reunited with her newborn baby boy.

Kennedy Jackson was one day old on Jan. 22 when a car crash on Main Street, Stouffville claimed the life of his father Steven Jackson, 32, and seriously injured Mullings, 29.

On Tuesday, Mullings left Sunnybrook Health Science Centre to begin a rehabilitation program at Markham Stouffville Hospital.

The new mother received multiple injuries, including a fractured skull and multiple broken bones in the crash.

Mom and baby have been able to spend time together since she has been transferred, hospital acting President and Chief of Staff Dr. Jim MacLean said.

Mullings will begin rehabilitation, while Kennedy will remain in the hospital nursery, MacLean added.

The entire region has been touched by the tragedy. A trust fund established at the Stouffville Credit Union on Main Street had a balance of $13,000 at press time and donations are still pouring in. Meanwhile, fundraisers across the community continue this weekend.

A few days ago, Mullings said goodbye to her husband at a quiet memorial service held at Sunnybrook.

The young couple married in June and moved to Stouffville Jan. 1.

"They wanted to raise their family in a quiet and caring community," landlord Mary Benincase said.

The public is urged to take part in the fundraisers. The Corner House on Main Street is donating proceeds from a special roast beef dinner on Feb. 7. Proceeds from the meal — salad, roast beef, pie and ice cream — will be donated to the Mullings and Baby Fund.

The cost is $15 for adults and $7.50 for children. As well, Corner House staff will add their tips to the pot. The settings are at 2, 3:30 and 5 p.m. For a reservation call 640-8494.

Meanwhile, Harvey's Serving Swiss Chalet will host a breakfast fundraiser this weekend. All proceeds from breakfast sales between 8 and 11 a.m. Saturday and Sunday will go to the fund.

Charlinda's Chocolates of Musselman's Lake has launched a special Valentine's fundraiser.

From Feb. 5 to 14, 10 per cent of all sales from the Ninth Line establishment will be donated to the mother and baby fund.

"Angelina appreciates everything that's being done for her," MacLean said.

The African and Jamaican communities across the Greater Toronto Area are also rallying behind the woman, hoping to further boost the trust fund for Mullings.
