CHILD DEVELOPMENT SUPPORTED

Honey Tree Nursery School on Church Street in Markham received visitors last week to see the Markham Stouffville Hospital's pediatric developmental program at work. The program received a $25,000 shot in the arm from Ronald McDonalds Children's Charities of Canada recently through McDonalds Restaurants of Markham and the Hospital Foundation. Watching the children play are: (from left) early childhood educator Carmen Presutti, McDonald's Restaurants of Markham owner Dick Cohen, Ronald McDonald Children's Charities manager Heather Clark, occupational therapist Denise Hohn, hospital foundation president Gina Rosen, and director of maternal child systems Molly Court.

Borrowing money to maximize your RSPs has always been a good idea.

This year it's a great idea.

If we only had a dime...

for every time someone said "Being disabled means you can't lead a full life" We'd have the ability to help thousands more disabled adults live independently.

GIVE US THE ABILITY TO DO MORE. PLEASE GIVE TO THE ONTARIO MARCH OF DIMES.
