Richmond Hill AAA major bantam Stars.

Scott Martin, Jason Read, Dave Zelasko, Mike Micheff, Will Chang, Phil Barski and call up Marcus Smith scored against Shelburne.

The Spirit led 2-1 after the first period, then carried a 4-3 lead into the third.

Brendan McCann led the way with a hat trick against Thornhill Sunday. Other Stouffville goals went to: Zelasko, Mike Tucciarone, Martin and Micheff.

Kevin Boyle was in steady in the Spirit net for both games.

Jesse Johnston was moved back from forward to defence and was impressive along side Justin Thickins.

While past Spirit teams might have been intimidated at the thought of tangling with the powerhouse Blues in post season play, Perrin thinks his team has proved they deserve to be on the same ice surface.

"They (Collingwood) have a lot of talent, but I don't think we're the type of team you can disrespect anymore. We're the underdogs, but it's a short series and anything can happen."

The Blues won all four games between the two teams during the regular season, although the Spirit took them into overtime before losing 3-2 Oct. 24 at the rec centre.

The Blues held an overall 23-11 scoring edge in the four games.

Barski, who finished the season second in team scoring with 25 goals and 50 assists, said he's comparing the Spirit with last year's Couchiching Terriers.

The Terriers went on to win the division playoff title after just barely making the playoffs.

"Their goalie carried them, and Zago (Spirit goalie Rob) can carry us," Barski said. "Our team is really coming together. We're getting hot goal keeping and good scoring. I think we're going to turn some heads."

Perrin said it's essential for his team to stay on track no matter what happens on the ice against the Blues.

"We have to stick to our game plan. If they get up by a few goals we've got to keep our focus."

Perrin and the Spirit are counting on an assist from the hometown faithful for game two of the series Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the rec centre.

"We've got our work cut out for us. Hopefully we'll get a big crowd out. We'll need that seventh man out there."

Game three is scheduled for Friday in Collingwood.

PHIL BARSKI

is confident Spirit can fare well in playoffs

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

PHIL BARSKI

Phil is hoping to put the cap on an outstanding season by leading the Spirit of Stouffville against the Collingwood Blues in this week's first round Ontario Provincial Junior A Hockey League playoff series.

Rock on Phil!
