COMMUNITY DIGEST

Aerobathon benefits family who suffered tragedy

The Works Fitness and Aerobics Club is holding an aerobathon this Saturday, with all proceeds going to the Angelina Mullings Family Trust.

Stouffville and Markham residents are urged to support Mullings, whose husband, Steve Jackson, was killed in a car crash Jan. 22, the day after their son Kennedy was born at Markham Stouffville hospital.

The couple had moved to Stouffville a few weeks before the tragedy.

The aerobathon will take place from 10 a.m. to noon. Prizes for most money raised will be given, along with door prizes and gifts for the craziest outfit.

Any Works non-member is welcome, as long as they have at least $20 in pledges.

Pledge forms are available at the Works, at 190 Bullock Dr. in Markham. Call 471-7871 for details.

Teen dance location changed

The Mayor's Youth Task Force is holding a teen dance at Milliken Mills Community Centre Friday March 12.

The dance was originally to be held at Crosby Arena but the location has been changed to the Milliken site.

Organized by the Unionville Youth Council, the dance is on from 7 to 11 p.m. and will feature DJ-supplied dance and hip-hop music.

It's for kids 12 to 16 and costs $5. For more information, call 477-6410.

Look on-line for health care info

Do you know someone who needs health care at home? Are you concerned about aging parents?

Now, you can look to the net for answers, at www.ccacyorkregion.on.ca

The Community Care Access Centre of York Region has launched this web site, which includes descriptions of CCAC services, examples of clients served and general eligibility criteria, along with links to other community agencies.

For more information, check out the web site or call 1-888-470-2222.

Sap's running at sugarbush

The Sugarbush Maple Syrup Festival is the place for kids of all ages to enjoy a delicious Canadian tradition at two locations in York Region: Bruce's Mill Conservation Area near Stouffville and the Kortright Centre for Conservation in Kleinburg.

The festival is jam-packed with loads of hands-on activities, free samples of sap and pure maple syrup, authentic pioneer-style and modern maple syrup demonstrations, all-day pancake feasts, horse-drawn rides, March Break programs and a special Easter egg hunt.

At Bruce's Mill, young pancake lovers can also roll up their sleeves to help make maple syrup, and use a buck-saw to cut a log.

At the Kortright Centre, visitors can drill a hole for a sap spile and meet he Grandpa maple tree.

The festival runs to April 11 at both sites.

Admission to either location is $5 for adults, $3 for seniors and students, and children 4 and under with a parent or guardian get in free.

Bruce's Mill is located on Stouffville Road, three kilometres east of Hwy. 404.

The Kortright Centre is located on Pine Valley Drive in Kleinburg.
