Thinking Outside of the Box...

Reach new heights in your career with one of Canada's most successful retail ventures. Ongoing expansion means we are always on the lookout for entrepreneurial and experienced individuals eager to join an organization with significant growth potential. Our business philosophy attracts individuals like you — those whose innovation and creative solutions are steps up the ladder to a successful and dynamic professional career. Currently, we seek an:

Accounts Payable Expense Analyst

You will be responsible for: reviewing and coding all expense vendor invoices, petty cash, reconciliations and employee expenses; monitoring vendor statements for under/over payments and missing invoices, and updating data in the AS400 system. In addition, you will handle queries from vendors and stores.

Accounts Payable Trade Analyst

You will be responsible for: reviewing and analyzing vendor invoice variances, ensuring payments are accurate and timely, reviewing and applying costs to all vendor authorized items, completing vendor statement reconciliations and updating data on the AS400 system. In addition, you will handle queries from vendors and stores.

Qualified applicants will be self-motivated and deadline-oriented with effective interpersonal skills. 1-3 years' accounts payable experience in expense coding to the general ledger and a post-secondary education, including some accounting courses, are required.

If you are interested in these opportunities, please forward your resume, in confidence, to:
