Attack draws tough opposition in Niagara Falls tournament

BY BRUCE STAPLEY
Correspondent

The York Attack under-14 girls' rep soccer team went up against the best over the weekend in Niagara Falls.

And while the Stouffville-based squad managed only a win and a tie in four games at the high-level West Niagara Girls' Invitational Soccer Tournament, they know now what it takes to become a winner.

The Attack played three games in the blistering heat Saturday, starting off with a 3-1 win over Erin Mills.

After a 0-0 draw with Niagara Falls in game two, the Attack were blanked 4-0 by the Ontario Cup winners from Oakville in their third outing of the day.

In Sunday's playoff round, the Attack was ousted 5-1 by a well-oiled London outfit.

"It was a tremendous experience, that's the way the girls have to look at it," said Attack coach Alfons Rubbens of his team's participation in the 13-team division.

He said playing against some of the best teams in the province at the tournament should serve as an incentive for his players to become truly competitive. "It was an education. Now we have to ask ourselves, do we want to challenge them, do we want to become part of the best."

In Central Soccer League regular season play last week, the Attack held Peterborough City to a 0-0 tie in the York team's home opener at the Whitchurch-Highlands PS field.

Attack goalkeeper Jamie Lynn Pizans headed up a strong defensive effort by her team.

The game was a confidence booster for the Attack, who have struggled in the first few games of their initial Premier Division season.

"They showed they belong in the Premier Division of the Central Girls Soccer League," said Rubbens. "We forced Peterborough to play our style of play and they didn't like it."

Rubbens said the result showed what his team is capable of.

"We're a young team and we have proven once again that when we play as a united team we can challenge anybody."

The Attack are home to the Etobicoke Tigers tomorrow at 7 p.m.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

WAYNE JONES

Wayne is an avid booster of all Stouffville sports teams. He was honoured by the Spirit of Stouffville at their team banquet earlier this spring, with the team presenting him with a team jacket for his support.

Way to be involved, Wayne!
