

TOWN: Bob Panizza moved from Stouffville to Markham before taking job in Aurora

Markham town clerk takes post in Aurora

Markham Town clerk Bob Panizza is leaving his position to take on clerk's duties in his hometown of Aurora.

Tomorrow is his last day. "I've enjoyed working here — this is an exciting, always-changing municipality and with the growth there are always things happening here," Panizza said. "But I have the opportunity to work close to home, in a similar environment and I can't overlook that."

Panizza has been named Aurora's town clerk and director of corporate services.

He has worked in municipal government for 26 years, including a stint as Whitchurch-Stouffville's CAO. He's been in Markham for the last seven years. In that time he has earned a reputation for being organized, diligent and responsive. While looking forward to new challenges, Panizza said he'll miss the many friends and colleagues he's worked with over the years.

"You build a rapport and connection with staff and I have worked with a lot of wonderful people," he said. "I saw a lot of changes and it has been very satisfying and very challenging."

Markham Mayor Don Cousens publicly acknowledged the loss of Panizza at council Tuesday night.

"You have been a tremendous asset for the town," he said.

"You are a diligent, hardworking person who is conscientious about his job — which has to be one of the worst jobs in town," Cousens quipped. "You do it with a smile and with wonderful staff. We wish you well in your new opportunity."
