Mercedes-Benz makes purchasing a new vehicle easier

Easy-to-use website lists information on used cars, parts, financing and more

Before purchasing a new or used vehicle, it's important to research both the vehicle itself and the manufacturer. To help people in that search, Mercedes-Benz has established websites for every dealership in Canada. "Each dealership is created a little differently," said Andrew Thurston, of Mercedes-Benz Markham.

While Mercedes-Benz Canada created the initial websites, Thurston said the individual dealerships are able to upgrade and personalize their site.

Markham's website has a picture of the dealership, hours of operation and a map and directions on how to get there.

People are able to connect to the variety of links including parts, financing and pre-owned inventory.

This link is perfect for people who want to get as much information on a vehicle as possible before going to the actual dealership.

People can view the three stars of the week. Changing weekly, these stars include pictures of vehicles as well as information such as mileage, interior and exterior colours, features and price.

This link is perfect for people who want to get as much information on a vehicle as possible before going to the actual dealership.

In addition, the site lists a variety of other vehicles with a small synopsis of each.

And if people are looking for additional information, they can email the dealership and someone will send a digital photograph of the vehicle and any additional information they request.

"It makes it easier for the customer," Thurston said.

PURCHASING MERCEDES-BENZ MERCHANDISE ONLINE

Mercedes-Benz lovers can also purchase merchandise found in the boutique, online. The website offers specials that change frequently. People can also request a catalogue.

"The website is convenient and easy to use."

The website address for Mercedes-Benz Markham is www.markham.mercedes-benz.ca
