FOCUS ON BUSINESS

At Markham Furniture quality, workmanship and reasonable prices go hand in hand

Behind the finely crafted wood, hidden beneath the reams of quality fabric at Markham Furniture, there is something less visible to the untrained eye.

It is precision and attention to detail — ingredients that are born out of owner Bill Rizk's 25-year labour of love.

"I've been in this business all my life," Rizk said. "I put everything I have into my work."

It is that kind of dedication that has earned Rizk the reputation for producing some of the finest handmade furniture available.

"It's extremely high quality," Rizk added. "But it's also affordable. I am making furniture that would sell for double the price at retail outlets."

CUSTOM-BUILT SOFAS FROM $1,199 TO $1,499

All sofas, chairs and loveseats, which are made with solid wood frames, are double-doweled and include eight-way, hand-tied coil springs.

From Victorian to modern to traditional, the styles are as varied as the choice of fabric and leather. However, beneath the cloth lies the key to comfort. And it is here that Rizk's furniture stands apart. With a high-density foam that comes in four degrees of firmness, chairs and sofas can be custom designed to offer more support for people with bad backs, or less for those who prefer a softer feeling.

"It really is personal attention," said Rizk, who spent 13 years honing his craft as the plant manager for Barrymore Furniture and now oversees a staff of three highly trained employees, each with more than 30 years experience.

Rizk has put his experience to work in another direction, as well. Not only will he build you a new piece of furniture, he will reupholster your old. And he'll use the same attention to detail that goes into everything he builds.

"Reupholstery is an important part of my business," he said. "If a chair or sofa is worth reupholstering, we have the expertise to do it right."

Let V Care take care of your cleaning while you deal with pleasures of summer

The first day of warm weather after winter can find many people out in their driveways cleaning their vehicles.

But as the temperature rises and summer goes on, the pleasure quickly evaporates, making washing the vehicle seem more like a chore than anything enjoyable.

And that is where V Care Inc. steps in. The professionals at V Care come directly to your home to clean the carpets and upholstery in your vehicle.

The benefit of using us over other companies is that we specialize in carpet and upholstery cleaning," said Savio Vaz, owner of V Care Inc.

"People know they are getting a quality service, using quality products. If people request, V Care also does complete detailing work."

But V Care does more than vehicle upholstery and carpet cleaning.

V Care also offers a superior duct and residential and commercial carpet and upholstery cleaning as well as window cleaning.

Offering a superior cleaning service since 1986, V Care's highly-trained staff go out of their way to ensure every need of the customer is met.

A member of the Better Business Bureau and the Floor Covering Institute of Ontario, staff understand the customer's time is valuable.

Set a favorable arrangement appointments when it is convenient for the customer, arrive at the scheduled time and complete the job quickly and effectively.

V Care recommends getting your duct work cleaned every three to five years.
