

The School Fine Dining

It is Our Pleasure to Serve

Fine dining still exists in Markham.

The School, housed in the former Hagerman Public School, offers people a place to go for excellent food, wonderful service and a fabulous atmosphere.

Owners Nick and George Zarafonitis purchased the school house in 1989 and have turned it into a fine dining steak and seafood house. They continue to emphasize a quality dining experience based on fresh and natural ingredients and products.

Despite some major changes (including an addition and the newly-opened patio), The School retains its Victorian charm.

Certified Chef d'Cuisine Warren Gelinas presents a dining experience where our guests can enjoy a romantic candlelit dinner in the main dining room or enjoy a bottle of wine with friends in the jazz lounge. But regardless of the occasion, customers will receive first-class service from waiters who know how to make their guests feel completely at home.
