Physiotherapy works!

Stouffville Furniture

Stouffville Furniture will do whatever is required to keep their customers completely happy.

"We offer free delivery to the area, we don't overprice and we don't work on commission. We work with our customers," said Ville Papas, who owns the business with her husband George.

"And if people want to come in after hours, I'll make a special appointment. I will also come to your home to ensure that the workmanship meets our standards." Good service is only part of the equation at Stouffville Furniture.

Stouffville Furniture offers quality blinds and drapes as well as solid-frame sofas, bedroom and dining room sets, bedding and more. Stouffville Furniture offers a selection of styles, fabrics and colours that will please the most discerning eye.

Allied Physiotherapy — gaining the confidence of the community

Every year, people develop permanent disabilities because they do not obtain timely physiotherapy.

Conditions that physiotherapists can treat include tendinitis, carpal tunnel, mechanical back and neck pain, heel pain, sciatica, osteoarthritis, sports injuries and motor vehicle accidents. Special conditions include stroke, fibromyalgia, jaw pain and mechanical headache.

Allied Physiotherapy offers quality care at a reasonable cost. Customer satisfaction is their number one priority.

Senior physiotherapist Scott Turner has specialized training in McKenzie Mechanical Spinal Assessment and Treatment. His treatments are based upon measured outcomes and directed by the latest research.

Allied Physiotherapy is located at 4581 Hwy 7, Suite 103B.
