CLASSIC COSTUMES

STAFF PHOTO/SIOERD WITTEVEN

Piles of clothing, from vintage costumes to retro finds, can be snapped up by the public this Saturday at 130 Sherwood Forest Dr. in Markham. Between 9 a.m. and noon, MLT will be selling these very affordable fashion gems, funky stuff perfect for back to school or unique pieces for Halloween costumes. The sale kicks off a fund-raiser and the money will be used to finance a clubhouse and storage space for the theatre troupe. Modelling some of the items are, from left, Amanda Davison, Will Davison, Ann Davison, Bob Parker, and Donna Parker. The clothing will be on sale for between $1 and $5.

Photographer has worldwide vision

A local artist has combined her passions for travel and photography, and produced a collection of black and white portraits.

Monique Simone Weston, a graduate of Unionville High School, is exhibiting The Coeure Collection at the Kathleen Gormley McKay Art Centre at 197 Main St., Unionville.

Weston chose her 13 best photographs shot during three years of travelling throughout the world.

In addition to the main collection, with the pictures sized at 11 by 14 inches, Weston is including a smaller, unique photo of the McKay Art Centre.

The exhibition starts today and continues to Sunday. For hours of operation, call the gallery at 946-1733.

Local talent represented at seniors jubilee

Local talented musicians will join 1,300 performers from 75 communities across Ontario in an all-seniors jubilee in Toronto later this month.

Gordon Brook, who appears with the Toronto Banjo Band, and pianist Jean Hammond, both of Whitchurch-Stouffville, will entertain at the Royal Bank Seniors Jubilee at Roy Thomson Hall Aug. 16 to 20.

Stouffville talent will be joined by Markham's renowned Kick-Up a Fuss Cloggers and the Four Kicks.

More than 10 years ago, Wayne Burnett and Glenda Richards of Richburn Entertainment had a vision, one that would dispel myths and prove that age was no barrier to accomplishment.

The evolution of this ideal became the Royal Bank Seniors Jubilee — a week-long celebration that provides the opportunity for older adults to achieve new goals as artists and performers and inspire others to an active, creative and healthy lifestyle.

This year, the group also celebrates senior achievement in this the United Nations designated International Year of Older Persons.

For single tickets call (416) 872-4255; for special group tickets of 20 or more call (416) 593-4822, ext. 225.

exhibition will please both art and car buffs. Art collectors can also see the real thing, directly across the street at the antique and classic car show. Call 640-8954 for details.

Juried art show starts Aug. 11

Next Wednesday marks the opening of the juried York Region art show at the Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery.

Starting Aug. 11 and running to Sept. 19, the exhibit represents an expression of community spirit with works in acrylic, oil, watercolour, pastel, mixed media, photography and sculpture.

The 35 artists were chosen by a panel of jurors representing the local arts community.

The gallery is at 216 Main St., Unionville.

Become a Jubilate Singer

The Jubilate Singers are holding auditions for the upcoming season, and applications are invited from singers in every vocal range.

The mixed-voice chamber choir rehearses Tuesday evenings from September to June, and present a subscription series and several special concerts each season.

Rehearsals are held at Lansing United Church near Sheppard Avenue and Yonge Street.

For information or to set up an audition, call Marilyn Halpern at 731-4831.

Classic car art on display

For the next two weekends, antique and classic car buffs can view a wide range of art relating to their passion.

In conjunction with the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum's 28th annual antique and classic car show, the Latcham Gallery West at 14685 Woodbine Ave. in Vancor presents an exhibit and sale of automotive fine art.
