

SAGE & ONION SAUSAGES

Although these are really good Bar-B-Que'd, they're equally good pan-fried or oven-roasted. Think of them as a smaller version of our stuffed pork loin roasts. The ingredients are the same and the flavour is just as great. Also if Garlic doesn't agree with you, this is one of two sausages we make which doesn't contain garlic. Reg. 3.99 lb.

EXTRA-LARGE CANTALOUPE

We have a great supply of extra-large size local cantaloupes this week. They've got good colour, sweetness and really good flavour - and a great price too!

1.99 EACH

MANOUCHER'S BAGUETTES

Last week, one of our new customers asked me "What do you do with this bread?" Admittedly, it's a unique item having such a non-crusty texture. I explained that it's made with the addition of some potato to the dough, it's fully baked and you can eat it just like that with your favourite sweet or savory spread, you can make great garlic bread with it or... you can do this: take a section of it and split it horizontally, lay a few thin slices of Brie Cheese (at room temperature) on the bottom half, top this with a few thin slices of a pear, crack on this some black pepper and presto - a sandwich with great subtle flavour and luxurious texture! Reg. 3.49 ea.

OUR DELI ROAST BEEF

Next to our assortment of hams, this is our best-selling deli meat. The reason is (a) we cook it pink, (b) we use the centre cut of an inside round rump roast and (c) we trim it lean. Although most use it for sandwiches, try it at room temperature with some good olive oil and balsamic vinegar. Regular 9.95/lb.

SMOKED TURKEY DRUMS

These are great just warmed and eaten as is, cut into a pasta or casserole or cooked with vegetables to make a very good (and low fat) soup. While they last!

QUEEN ELIZABETH CAKE

This recipe is from Doreen's archives. It's an old-fashioned recipe that has been a favourite in many a family.

It's a moist, lightly-spiced cake using some pecans and dates - topped with a mixture of brown sugar, cream, butter and coconut. Definitely fit for a queen!

12.95 EACH

EGGPLANT DIP

This is a perfect blend of seasonings and textures - great as a veggie dip, spread on a Manoucher's baguette (or any other bread) or on a sandwich. Very versatile and definitely worth a try.

Reg. $1.79/100 g

ORGANIC LETTUCE

During the local growing season we sell a selection of Organic Lettuce grown in Muskoka. It's second to none in quality and it's always a sad thing for us (and I'm sure for the girl who farms it) when the frost comes.

Coincidentally, just as we sold out of our last shipment of local lettuce, one of our suppliers at the produce terminal has imported a range of organic salads ready-to-go, pre-washed, in bags from California. The range of these lettuces from Earthbound Farm is extensive (9 varieties) and the quality is excellent. Try one this week and see what you think.

RED DELICIOUS APPLES FROM COLLINGWOOD

Mayor takes on CAO's duties

FROM PAGE 1

Emmerson will be not paid extra for being the town's CEO. Whitchurch-Stouffville "doesn't need a CAO," Emmerson said.

"We have good department heads. They're quite capable of handling their department duties. They have been told of the change. They're fine," he said.

It is business as usual at the municipal office, Emmerson said. The town's department heads are busy working on budgets, and no delays are anticipated.

Details of a financial settlement for Dewing had not been ironed out at press time. Emmerson said he would make an inquiry about what information, if any, can be made public.

Dewing, 46, was Whitchurch-Stouffville's CAO for six and a half years. He was thanked for his years of dedicated service to the town, and wished well in his future endeavours.

Rouge celebration Sunday

In celebration of last spring's provincial commitment to double Rouge Park boundaries in Markham, the town's conservation committee is hosting a reception Sunday.

The wine and cheese will run from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Rouge River Community Centre on Rougebank Drive and is a fundraiser for the Markham Conservation Committee. Tickets are $25.

For more information, call Neville Cohen at 477-4989 or Councillor Randy Barber at 479-7756.
