Bowling tourney, dinner raises funds for local charities

The Canada Chinese Computer Association hosts its annual bowling tourney and dinner fundraiser on Oct. 30.

Hundreds of participants, including Markham Mayor Don Cousens, Ontario Solicitor General David Tsubouchi and Markham MP Jim Jones, will bowl for dollars at Markham's Club 300 to raise funds for York Region charitable organizations.

In the evening, following the bowling, the CCCA will host a gala dinner at the Century Palace Chinese Restaurant in Markham.

Since launching the first event in 1993, the CCCA has donated more than $212,000 to various community charitable organizations, including the Hospital for Sick Children Foundation, Children's Aid Foundation, United Way, World Vision, Yee Hong Centre for Geriatric Care, Mount Sinai Hospital, Scarborough General Hospital, Canadian Prostate Cancer Research Foundation, Canadian Cancer Foundation, St. John Ambulance, Salvation Army and Canadian Red Cross.

The main beneficiaries of this year's event are the Alzheimer Society of York Region, the Mon Sheong Foundation and the Yee Hong Centre for Geriatric Care.

Located in Markham, the CCCA is an organization of nearly 100 members and associate members with interests in various aspects of the computer industry. For more information on the bowling and dinner, call the CCCA at 513-0675.

Hospital hosts aging seminar

In connection to The International Year of the Older Person, Markham Stouffville Hospital hosts an Aging Well seminar on Oct. 26 from noon to 5 p.m.

The event will teach participants how to age well and where and how to access health promotion resources in the community. The seminar will feature representatives from York Region Support Services for Seniors, Evergreen Hospice, Alzheimer's Society, Community Care Access Centre, Union Villa and other organizations. For information, call 472-7000.

Tulip planting planned for Saturday

This Saturday Markham residents are being asked to show pride in their community.

The Lake Simcoe South Master Gardeners and the Markham Garden Horticultural Society encourage residents to help plant tulips. From 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. residents are invited bring gardening gloves and a hand shovel to Robinson and Main St. Markham. Those who can't make it, can purchase the red and white tulips to plant at home.

For more information, call 472-262.
