Decorated rooms help people visualize what their home could look like

"People are now trying to create their own sacred space — something that expresses who they are, and we are trying to help."

Linda said in the future they hope to have a decorator on staff to answer questions and to help people put together rooms in their own home.

And like the Queen's Pantry, all staff have a background in decorating and are eager to help.

Linda said people are also encouraged to take home accessories on a trial period to ensure they are completely happy.

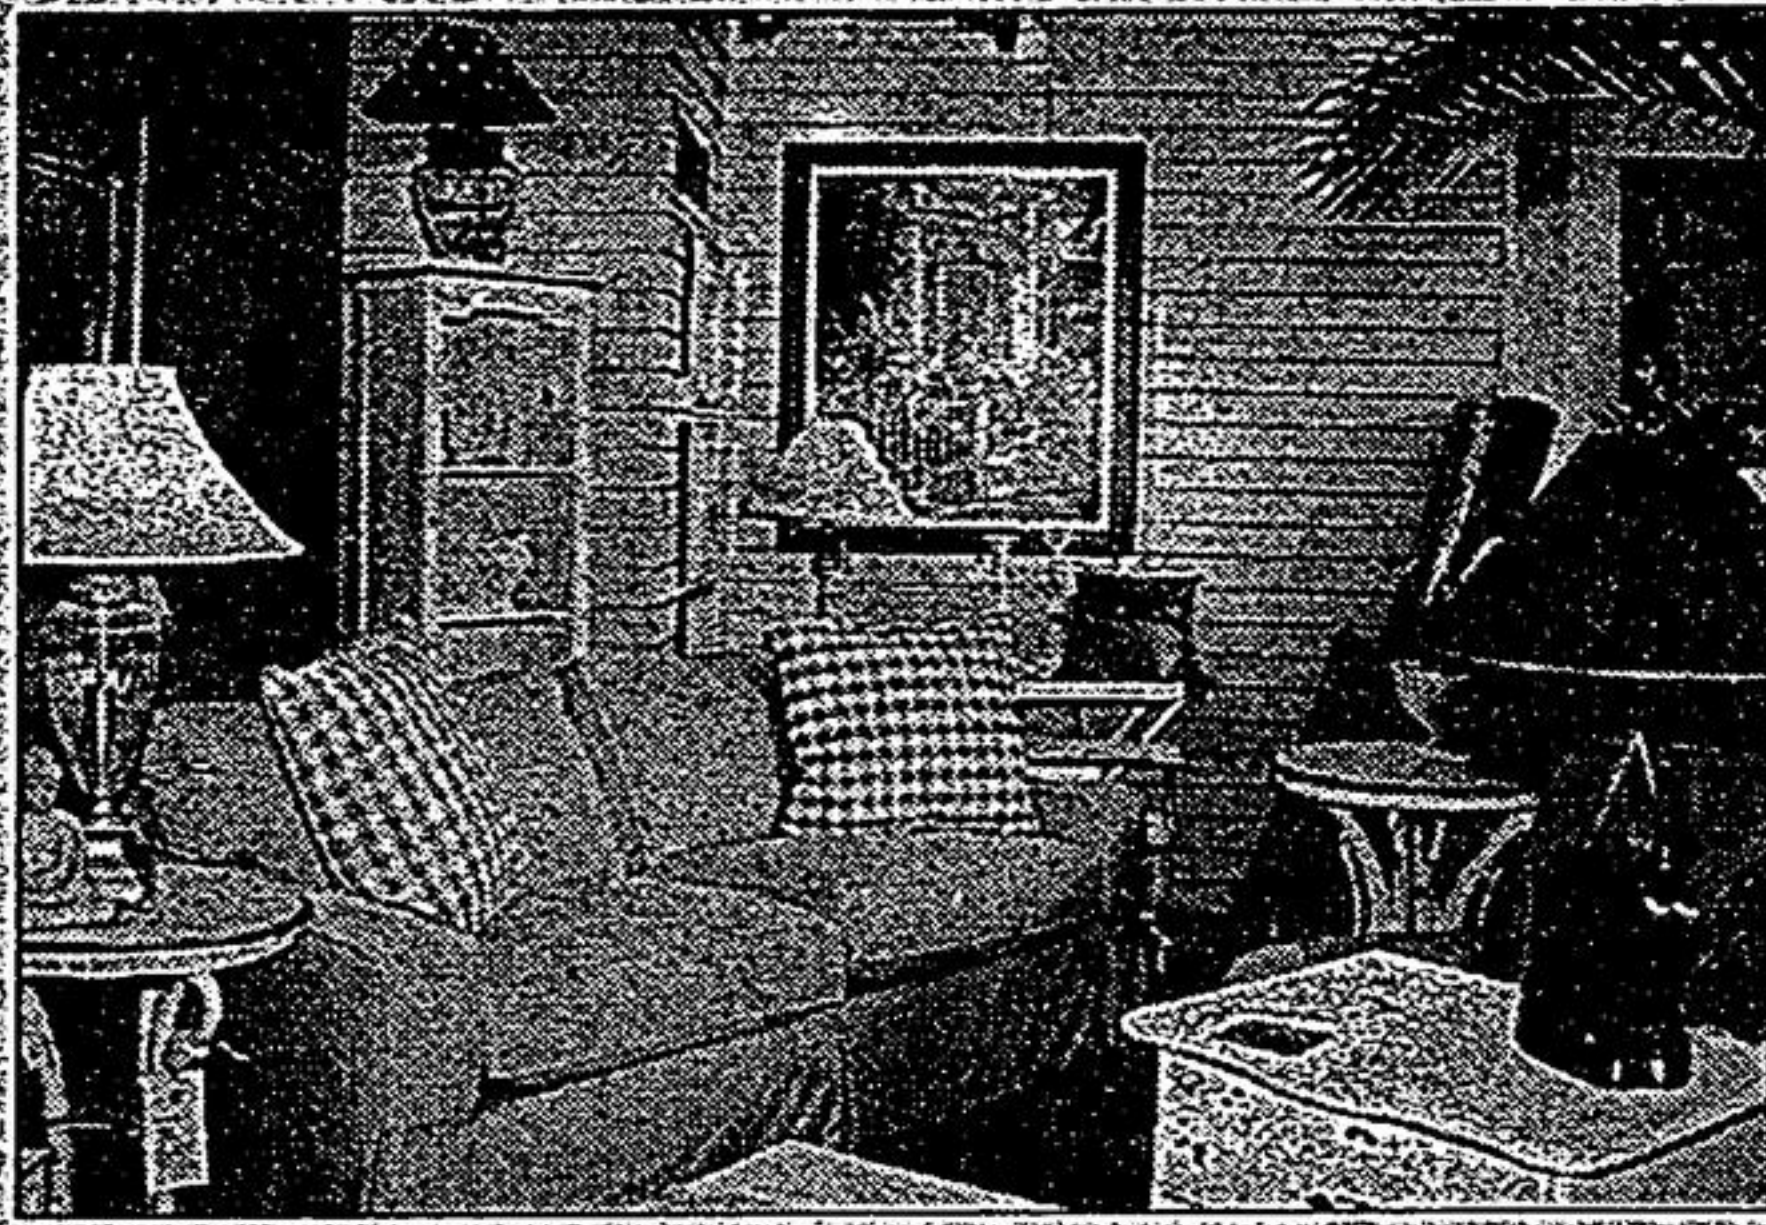

"We provide a worry-free shopping experience," Linda said. "People are now trying to create their own sacred space — something that expresses who they are, and we are trying to help."

Linda Chadwick, who owns The Queensbridge Mill with her sister, Karen, said the website is set up to sell the extensive selection of curtains and bedding lines including ready-made lace and tab panels.

(The Chadwicks have one of the best selections of tab panels in the Toronto area.)

For details visit The Queensbridge Mill Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 4160 19th Ave. between Kennedy Road and Warden Avenue or call 887-1127.

The Queen's Pantry is located at 176 Main St. Unionville. They are open
