Parkette gets new equipment

Greenwood Road parkette has been saved. Whitchurch-Stouffville council gave the nod to buy $20,000 worth of playground equipment for the parkette, located near Millard Street.

Linden Lane resident Shelly Mistelbacker is thrilled. Two weeks ago, when town staff removed the old playground equipment, Mistelbacker worried that it was the end of the parkette.

The mother of two preschoolers urged area residents to call members of council and ask that the park remain open.

And residents took up the challenge, Councillor Judy Scala said.

"This park has had play equipment for 10 years. It should continue."

The old playground equipment at Greenwood was a safety hazard, staff reported.

"We're worried that it is unsafe. We want to make sure it is out of there. It's old," community and leisure services director Tom Graham said.

The money for the equipment came out of the town's park trust fund.

Library board has full slate

The vacancy on the Whitchurch-Stouffville Library Board has been filled.

Last Tuesday, council appointed Dr. Gordon Davidson of McCowan Road to the library board.

The seat was left vacant following the September resignation of board chairperson Jan Williams and the appointment of board member Owen Craig to the post.

Davidson joins Craig, Helene Johnson, Monica Vanmaris and town councillors Mark Carroll, Judy Scala and Sue Sherban.

Next year, the library will be relocated to lands near Rose Avenue to be part of a soon-to-be-built multi-million-dollar indoor swimming pool and library complex.
