

Choosing colours can be an enjoyable experience

Choosing the right colours for your home may seem overwhelming if you've never done it before. By following a few easy steps, you can make the colour selection process both fun and enjoyable.

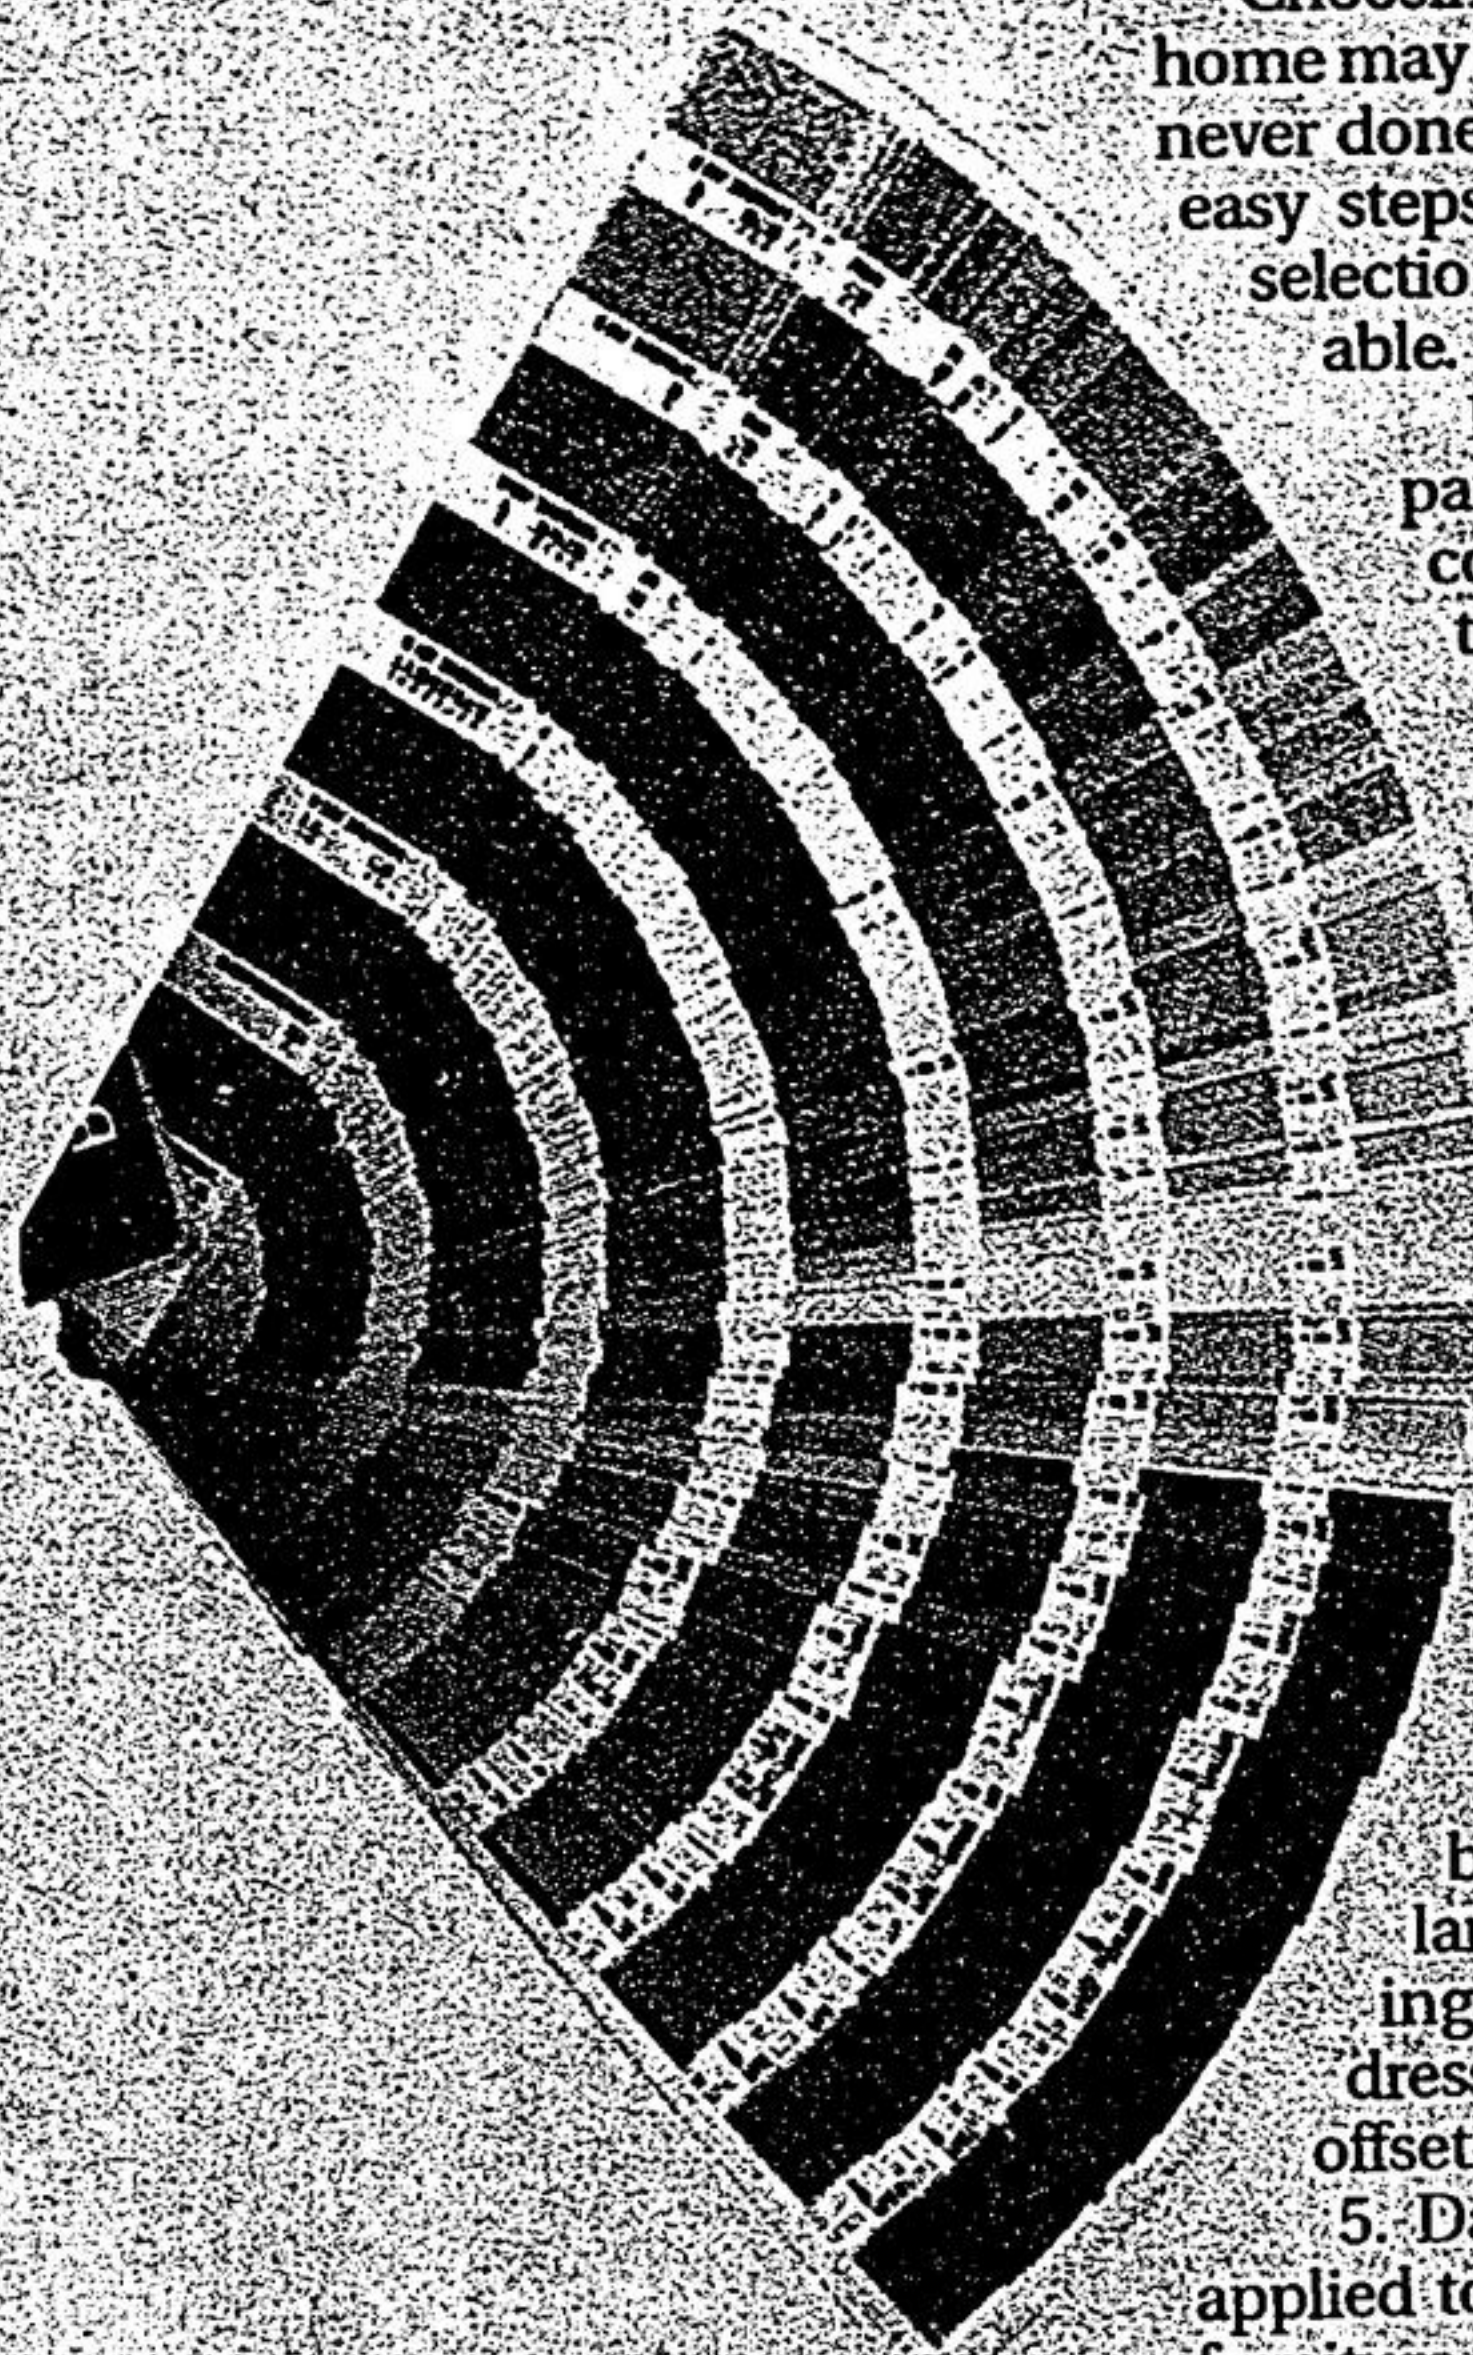

1. Start by choosing a single pattern. It is much easier to fit a colour scheme to a pattern than the other way around.

2. Once you've established a pattern, then choose three colours — light, medium and dark. These three colours will serve as the basis for your colour scheme for that room.

3. Ordinarily, soft, neutral colours — yellows, pinks or greens — are applied to walls and used as background. These soft colours can be knocked down with a touch of grey if they are too vivid.

4. Medium colours should be applied sparingly to the largest pieces — window coverings, bedding, cabinets and dressers. Medium colours tend to offset the lightness of the walls.

5. Darker colours are traditionally applied to floors, accessories and small furniture items. They also serve to
