Frances Hummel celebrates 90th birthday

Welcome to a new weekly column here at the Stouffville Tribune.

This space is dedicated to recognizing and congratulating local residents who are celebrating milestones in their lives, recipients of awards and honours and others deserving of recognition.

To start out, congratulations are extended to Frances Hummel (Wencel), a long-time resident of Stouffville who currently lives in the Parkview Apartments.

Frances celebrated her 90th birthday on Feb. 27. She marked the occasion this past weekend at a small party with her family.

Generous businesses

Recognition also goes to Graham Hoad, owner of The Lion of Stouffville, and Kim Everson, owner of Stouffville Florist. Both businesses donated prizes to the recent Mystery Resume contest held by the Neighbourhood Employment Resource Centre.

Ruth Robinson, employment facilitator at the centre, says both Hoad and Everson did not hesitate in their generosity.

Contestants were required to identify eight resumes and put them in order. Winners were then entered into a draw. One winner received lunch at the Lion and two others got bouquets from Stouffville Florist.

Kudos to students

In school news, Ballantrae Public School had six winners in the Grade 8 writing of the Canadian Mathematics League Contest. Ian Davenport, Katie Akey, Gavin Howe and Becky Smith placed first through fourth and Elise Miles and Joel Roberts tied for fifth in the contest which was written this past Monday.

At last week's recognition assembly, Whitchurch Highlands Public School congratulated the winners of the Feb. 11 primary spelling bee. Sarah Law, Kristin Gropp, Melanie Pretorius and Nicole Kiatipis were the great spellers.

Library seeks books

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library is looking for volunteers and donations for its annual book sale which takes place this year May 4 to 7.

Last year's sale raised over $5000 for the library. Volunteers are used to sort and sell the books.

Donations of books that are

Janet Richards

in fairly good shape are greatly appreciated.

Children's books are especially sought, even if they are a little tattered (they are sold as well-used and loved books).

The library does not want donations of magazines or encyclopedias (unless they are a full set).

Books for the sale can be dropped off at the library, or residents may call Marilyn Ferguson at the library (640-5639 ext. 223) to arrange to have them picked up.

Anyone wishing to volunteer can also call Ferguson.

If you know of a Stouffville resident who deserves recognition for an accomplishment or congratulations on a milestone, please call Janet Richards at 642-3482. Milestone birthdays and anniversaries, academic awards, and volunteer recognition are some of the items to call about.
