Girl struck and killed

A 17-year-old Thornhill girl was struck and killed on Hwy 404 near John Street Wednesday night.

Aurora OPP said Christina Shadderton was walking in the area when she was run over by several vehicles in the north-bound lanes.

Police say two vehicles pulled to the side of the four-lane highway after they struck the girl at about 9:10 p.m.

Other drivers continued travelling north, possibly unaware they had hit the girl.

No one else was injured in the incident. Aurora OPP are continuing their investigation.

Newmarket man charged

York Regional Police have arrested a Richmond Hill man after a Newmarket man reported he was sexually assaulted as a teen about 10 years ago.

Robert Fraser, 56, charged with sexual assault and sexual exploitation, appeared in Newmarket court on Friday for a bail hearing.

The charges were laid Thursday afternoon after a Newmarket man reported he was sexually assaulted at age 14 while boarding at a Newmarket residence between 1988 and 1990.

Man injured

A 54-year-old Newmarket man is in serious condition at a Toronto hospital after being struck by a car while crossing Leslie Street in Newmarket Thursday night.

The accident occurred around 9:20 p.m. when the man was struck by a northbound vehicle while crossing Leslie Street just north of Ringwell Drive, police said.

The man was first taken to York County Hospital and later rushed to St. Michael's Hospital.

The driver of the vehicle, a 49-year-old East Gwillimbury woman, was uninjured.
