

Dance & diversity

Events commemorating the International Day for the Elimination of Racism were held around Markham recently. At the Many Faces of Markham celebration, Markham Theatre was filled with music as dancers representing a wide range of cultures took to the stage. At left, a member of the Markham Filipino Heritage Group dances solo; above, the Sharma sisters perform a South Asian Dance; at right, a medley of reels, jigs and polkas was performed by Maureen's Reel Irish Dancers.

Milliken Mills Public School held a multicultural celebration last week. At left, Malika Bhola performs a traditional Indian dance. Below, the school's Chinese choir concludes a routine.

STAFF PHOTOS by ROB ALARY & SJOERD WITTEVEEN