RECRUITMENT

DEPUTY FIRE CHIEF

Reporting to the Fire Chief, our Deputy is responsible for the day-to-day supervision and administration of Fire operations in a composite, but predominantly Volunteer service. Duties include emergency response, incident command, staff recruitment/orientation/training/scheduling, vehicle/equipment maintenance and procurement, assisting with public education and fire prevention programs, preparation of policies/procedures/standards and reports, fire cause investigations, trends/incident analyses, presentations to community groups, participating in and/or undertaking projects/technical studies and long-range fire planning, and for associated liaison and representation duties including assuming the role and statutory responsibilities of Fire Chief in his absence and attendance at Council/Committee meetings where required.

To join our team, you need to demonstrate a successful track record in a municipal Fire Service leadership role. Relevant academic credentials will include advanced technical training in the Fire Service, accompanied by leadership and administrative studies. A thorough knowledge of the Fire Protection and Prevention Act (Ontario), associated Regulations, and OFM/NFPA guidelines and standards are required. Your excellent administrative, analytical, problem-solving, report-writing, communication, presentation, organizational and leadership/supervisory skills serve you well in your interaction with staff, our community and businesses, and elected officials. You are a sound financial manager, computer literate with practical knowledge of Fire-related applications, and enjoy finding creative approaches and solutions to issues.

In return, our Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville offers a friendly and supportive work environment, a salary range of $63,948 to $70,899 and an excellent benefits package.

We invite you to forward your resume, in confidence to: Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville, 37 Sandiford Dr., 4th floor, Stouffville, Ontario L4A 7X5 - Attention: Ainslie Wood, Wood-Sloan Inc. by Monday, May 1, 2000.

We thank all applicants and advise that those selected for an interview will be contacted by May 5, 2000.
