

Spring food drive on to May 6

BY ALICIA GORDON
Correspondent

The York Region Daily Bread food drive launched April 14 will continue to Saturday, May 6.

Those interested in donating can drop off non-perishable food items to local firehalls, Loblaws stores and other volunteer drop-off locations.

Last year, thanks to the tremendous support of the community, 40,000 emergency meal packages were handed out by the food banks of York Region. Half of these meals went to children.

Each emergency package contains enough food to last one person for approximately three days. The food bank hopes to stock the region's pantry shelves with enough food to last three months.

In order to focus on a balance of nutritious food, the food bank would appreciate items such as baby formula, canned fish and meats, fruit juice boxes, peanut butter, cereal, toothpaste and tooth brushes.

For more details on how you can contribute, please contact food drive coordinator Esther Templin at 836-4105.

Arthritis clinics starting

The consultation and rehabilitation service of The Arthritis Society is now offering one-hour clinics.

If you have any type of arthritis or are experiencing trouble with pain in the joints, stiffness, depression or lack of energy, book an appointment with the therapist at the Richmond Hill office, 508-5177.
