Art on the block at Varley auction

More than 100 works of art by national and international artists are yours for the bidding at the second annual Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery live auction Thursday night.

"This is not an elite-type event," curator Sharon Gaum-Kuchar said.

"It's meant to be an evening of entertainment and there's no prerequisite of art knowledge. Many people last year bought gifts for weddings or a christening. There are lots of reasons to attend."

On the block will be 114 works of art, 100 from national and international-calibre artists. The remaining 14 are local works including one by Dorothy Clark McClure and two by Michael Chortyk.

Water colours, oils, drawings, special edition prints and lithographs, including one by Picasso, will also be for sale.

"It's very low key, very affordable," Gaum-Kuchar said.

"There may be an estimated market value of $1,500, but it could sell for $400 or $500."

She added the evening is a great way to experience the excitement and flair of a live art auction. Michael Chortyk has donated one of his acrylics on canvass, called Rushing By, for raffle.

All proceeds will be split between the gallery and the Epilepsy Association of Metro Toronto.

The auction takes place this Thursday at the Crystal Fountain Banquet Hall on Kennedy Road west of 14th Avenue. Viewing begins at 6 p.m. and the live auction at 7:30 p.m.

Hors d'oeuvres and wine will be served. Tickets are $25 and can be ordered through the gallery at 477-9511, ext. 221.

Eastern Star donates $10,000 to Markhaven

The Markham chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will honour the volunteers who helped wrap gifts at Markville Shopping Centre at Christmas.

The chapter raised enough money to give $10,000 to Markhaven seniors home.

The cheque is to be presented at the chapter's spring luncheon tomorrow. Thanks go to the 12 adult volunteers and more than 30 high school students who helped.

The local chapter will celebrate its 73rd anniversary on May 17. During its history, members have supported a number of charities, most notably Markham Stouffville Hospital.
