SHEARER, Harold - In loving memory of a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather who left us May 2nd, 1995.

A special poem written with love from your granddaughter Adrienne.

This letter is to you my special friend, You know who you are. I am writing you a letter, Sent from afar.

I have wanted to write to you for such a long time. Just to tell you that we are all doing fine.

We miss you so dearly Words cannot describe. This pain we are feeling is killing us inside.

Why did you leave? There are so many things still to come. We all have grown to be something. For you shall never look down with a frown.

I miss your touch, I miss your face, Especially since I no longer see it at our special place.

All I want is to hear your voice, The one that was always there to help me make a choice.

I hope you are proud, I have tried my best, And all I want is for you to rest.

Your special girl gets lots of care, For every special moment she wishes you were there.

So goodbye for now my special friend, Until we meet again one day. You will never be forgotten, As you will always see us at that special place you lay.

Forever loved, forever missed, from your family.

Lillian Sievanen

With deep sorrow, we announce the passing of Lillian on May 2, 2000. Darling mother and best friend of LeeAnn Jensen and loving wife of the late Leo Arnold Sievanen.

Lillian was a founding member of Markham Little Theatre and received many awards for her loving contributions to theatre and the community including the Canada 125th year medal for Community Service.

Lillian's love of life and exuberant personality drew people to her and she touched many peoples lives and hearts. The love and devotion that she bestowed on her beloved daughter was beyond measure and returned completely. Those who knew Lillian cherished her and she will be greatly missed.

Friends will be received at Dixon-Garland Funeral Home, 166 Main Street North, (Hwy#48), Markham, from 10:30 a.m. Friday, May 5, 2000 until time of Memorial Service at 11 a.m. Floral tributes gratefully declined as expressions of sympathy. Donations to the Toronto Humane Society or the Salvation Army would be appreciated by the family. Reception to follow, Markham Theatre Lobby, (Hwy.#7 & Warden) from 12-1 p.m.
