

Making merry on May Day

Matthew Carrick, 4, chases maypole ribbons waving in the breeze at Stouffville's May Day event last Saturday, a day for caring and sharing in the community.

Children wrap ribbons around a maypole, part of Saturday's May Day celebrations aimed at helping residents meet new people.

Edith Bacon (left) accepts a Caring Citizen award last weekend during May Day. Bacon, of Stouffville United Church, was among seven residents nominated for the award. Others honoured were Stewart Wideman of Stouffville Mennonite Church; Margaret Jemett of Parkview Village; Cheryl Chapman of Stouffville District Secondary School; Jeanne Carey of Stouffville District Secondary School; Lynsey Moule of Summitview Public School; and Allicia Bankuti of Glad Park Public School.
