We all remember Mom

Throughout the ages, many heartfelt words have been recorded about mothers. From the earliest recorded history dating back thousands of years to the present, the role of mothers has been celebrated in song, dance, poetry, stories and film.

Here are a few prominent sons and daughters who share their thoughts about mother.

"I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life." - Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865)

"There is no velvet so soft as a mother's lap, no rose as lovely as her smile, no path so flowery as that imprinted with her footsteps." - Archibald Thompson

"The heart of a mother is a deep abyss at the bottom of which you will always find forgiveness." - Honore de Balzac (1799-1850)

"The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother." - David O. McKay, circa 1956

"Youth fades, love droops, the leaves of friendship fall; a mother's secret hope outlives them all." - Oliver Wendell Holmes (1809-1894)

"My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her." - George Washington (1732-1799)

"The mother's heart is the child's schoolroom." - Henry Ward Beecher (1813-1887)

"God could not be everywhere and therefore he made mothers." - Jewish proverb

"Mother's Day is in honour of the best Mother who ever lived - the Mother of your heart." - Anna Jarvis (founder of Mother's Day)
