Cougars rated tops in province

The Markham Cougars under-14 girls fastpitch team is proving to be worthy of its No. 1 pre-season ranking in the province, based on a recent poll conducted by coaches in the Ontario Premier Women's Fastpitch League.

The Cougars took to the diamond to play a pair of exhibition games recently against highly regarded clubs and came up with victories in each to improve their undefeated pre-season streak to seven games.

Backed by a two-hit pitching effort from Jaclyn Dinetz and Rhea Jankowski and a homer by Meghan Sullivan, the Cougars blanked the Mississauga North Tigers 10-0.

Facing the second-ranked Brampton Blazers on the road, the Cougars then received back-to-back homers from winning pitcher Joy Kyriazis and a solo shot from Christine Campoli to emerge with a 12-7 win.
