Be part of the Unionville Village Festival Community Picnic

The Unionville Village Festival is hosting an old-fashioned picnic on Sunday June 4, and everyone is welcome! The picnic will take place behind the Crosby Arena and kicks off at noon with a special Pets 'N' Pals Contest. You can enter your pet in categories that include Owner Pet Look Alike, Best Talker, Most Obedient, and Best Dressed Pet. These pet contests are hilarious," says Glen Richardson, a past chairman of the Unionville Village Festival. "The pets provide a lot of great entertainment for people of all ages, especially for children.

At 2:30PM, an egg toss (parents only) should provide a lot of messy fun for all involved. The winner will receive a Unionville Festival medal.

At 3:00PM, a Tug-Of-War Battle of the Elementary Schools will determine who is the strongest of them all! No pre-registration is required. Just gather at the wooden stake with your school's name on it and be prepared for a struggle.

Each team of 12 will consist of boys and girls. The grade total of the 12 pullers must not exceed 50 and no soccer or baseball shoes are permitted. Each member of the two top teams will be given a Unionville Festival medal.

Throughout the day, Dr. Bandoli will be present at the picnic, entertaining children with his antics and hi-jinx which includes an infamous show toss. Refreshments will be available throughout the afternoon. So pack a lunch and plan to attend the Unionville Village Festival's Community Picnic.

From 1:00PM to 2:30PM children from ages two to 13 can participate in a variety of fun races, including three-legged races, potato sack races, wheelbarrow races and separate male and female races as well. In each of the 100 races, ribbons will be awarded to the top three winners. Parents should be prepared to race as there are many parent-child races.
