

Tell us why your pops is tops

Send us the reasons why your pops is tops and you could win four passes to Paramount Canada's Wonderland or a $50 gift certificate for your dad at Markville Shopping Centre.

Sunday, June 18 is Father's Day and this would be the perfect time to let him know how you feel.

Tell us how he plays road hockey with you and your buddies. Tell us how he reads bedtime stories or makes you special treats. Is your dad always there to talk to? Let us know.

Mail us your note and pictures by Friday, June 9 to: My Dad is the Greatest, attention: Rick Vanderlinde, news editor, c/o The Economist & Sun/Tribune, 9 Heritage Rd., Markham, ON, L3P 1M3; e-mail us at newsroom@econ-sun.com or fax us at 294-1538.

We'll announce the winners in our Tuesday, June 13 edition and publish your entries in our Father's Day edition.

Swan sanctuary on garden tour

The Aurora Garden and Horticultural Society and the Newmarket Horticultural Society will present the Garden Tour of the Century June 25 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Eight gardens will be on this year's tour, including one that is a sanctuary for swans. Ticket holders can also attend a Victorian garden party from 3 to 5 p.m.

Period costumes, a garden party hat contest and free draws will be part of the entertainment.

A barbershop quartet and keyboard music will also be featured.

There are a limited number of tickets available at $10 from 727-5926.
