Wee Watch is Looking for Quality Home Day Care Providers

Wee Watch Private Home Day Care has been providing safe, quality home-based childcare in Markham, Unionville and Stouffville for over ten years. Licensed under the Day Nurseries Act, private home day care is the preferred choice of many parents because of the small numbers of children, the family-oriented setting and the personalized attention that children receive.

Wee Watch is currently looking for childcare Providers to join its agency. The profile of a typical Provider is an individual at home with her own children, or whose children have grown up and who wishes to earn an income at home.

There are many benefits of working as a Wee Watch Provider. For instance, all Providers receive extensive in-home training before they start caring for children. They also attend an infant/child first-aid/CPR course which is paid for by the Agency. Monthly workshops and seminars are offered to upgrade Providers' skills.

Providers receive ongoing support from qualified staff, as well as some equipment, materials and craft supplies. Many individuals who provide day care on a private basis in their home are unaware that they are not covered under any insurance plan. At Wee Watch, Providers receive liability insurance coverage.

Providers are paid by the Agency regularly every two weeks and are never responsible for the collection of money from parents. In addition, they are paid for statutory holidays and the first five days of a child's illness.

Wee Watch Providers take pride in their day care professionalism and don't consider themselves 'baby-sitters.' They provide a valuable service to the community and enjoy many benefits, including the opportunity to earn income while working from home.

If you would like more information on becoming a Wee Watch Provider, please call (905) 479-9671.

New model homes decorated by Queen's Pantry now open

Karen and Linda Chadwick of The Queen's Pantry are thrilled to announce the opening of three stunning Kylemore model homes at Angus Glen. All three model homes were decorated by The Queen's Pantry and are open to the public starting today.

"This has been an amazing opportunity for us to display our home furnishing lines, curtaining and accent pieces in real home settings," says Linda. "Each model home represents a very different and unique home furnishing style."

The model home used as the sales office is decorated in ultra modern, which is a popular trend today. The second model reflects a French Country style. "This continues to be a strong decorating style," says Karen. "Our customers love the warm, cozy, easy-to-live-with feeling that comes with this look."

The third model reflects a traditional contemporary home decor which allows The Queen's Pantry to profile a more upscale blend of furnishings. "This might seem like a complete departure from what people have come to think about us," says Linda. "But we're responding to our customers' desire for higher end styles of home furnishings."

The model homes at Kylemore have allowed the company to broaden its appeal by offering a sophisticated, contemporary flair. "In this way, we feel that we can offer our customers any type of home decor that suits them," says Karen.

The Queen's Pantry was chosen by Angus Glen to decorate the Kylemore model homes because of its long-standing involvement and high profile in the Markham community. "Angus Glen prides itself on being community-oriented and so do we," says Karen. "This was a marriage made in heaven." As part of the grand opening celebrations of the Kylemore model homes, Karen and Linda have launched a "HOP, SKIP and JUMP" contest, where participants have the opportunity to win a classic leather club chair. In order to be eligible, you need to visit the model homes and answer three questions concerning the models. Entry forms can be picked up at The Queen's Pantry and ballots are to be dropped off at the Queensbridge Mill on the 19th line. The draw will be held on September 30, 2000.

Linda and Karen have successfully operated The Queen's Pantry on Main Street in Unionville for over 18 years. In 1998, the sisters purchased the historic Almira Mill on the 19th line (between Warden and Kennedy) and renamed it the Queensbridge Mill. They opened a new showroom at this location in order to better showcase their extensive furniture lines.

The Kylemore model homes are located on Kennedy Road north (south of Major Mackenzie). The Queen's Pantry is located at 176 Main St. in Unionville and can be reached at (905) 477-4625.

They are open Monday to Saturday from 10AM to 5:30PM and Sunday from noon to 5:30PM. The Queensbridge Mill is located at 4160 19th Ave., between Kennedy and Warden and can be reached at (905) 887-1127.

They are open Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 10AM - 5PM. Visit the company website at www.queensbridge.com
