

Markham Village Festival

Music, crafts, food and more

MUSIC

Music has always been an integral part of the Markham Village Festival, and this year is no exception. From jazz and blues to reggae and rock, the local music scene will perform on four separate stages throughout the village.

The Ecuadorian Folkloric Music Group, Ibadan Raggaie Band and Chinese Drummers will provide an eclectic range of musical styles from around the world. On Saturday (6:00PM), the Pub Patio will feature local musical talent as well as the all-new Super Freak 70s Show, a nostalgic musical journey into the past.

CRAFTS, FOOD, AND A WHOLE LOT MORE

Over 100 craft and food vendors will present their wares on both sides of Main Street. The vendors will offer a fine selection of antique jewelry, woodwork, clay pottery, birdhouses, specialty clothing, wrought iron decorations and one-of-a-kind items. Many local businesses will join in by offering plenty of in-store specials.

On Saturday morning, the Farmer's Market takes place as usual. So get there early for a great selection.
