

THE SPIRIT OF MARKHAM VILLAGE

The Markham Village Festival, held on the weekend in venues on and near Main Street, offered something for everyone. Cyclists Keith Thirgood and Helen Walters of Capstone Communications (top) got into the historic spirit on their bicycle built for two. Veteran Bob Foster (right) and Joe Speciale handed out Canadian flags during Sunday's parade. Mark Kersey (bottom right) clowned around by hitching a ride on the back of a truck during the parade. Evan Mather gave a Canadian flag to Wing Lam, 6, during the parade (bottom centre). The first runner across the line in Sunday's five-kilometre fun run was Jamie Marcellus of Markham (bottom left). What tastes better than fresh pancakes? Pancakes with maple syrup, of course. (Left) Jean Bowman empties the syrup bottle as husband Sam watches. (Top left) The Markham Lions Club cooked the tasty treats and Joe Boll did his tour of duty at the griddle Sunday morning. The events included everything from music to skateboarding competitions to magic shows and youth theatre.
