Three easy steps needed to develop a feel and repetitive golf swing

To learn feel and to encourage a repetitive golf swing, we need to receive immediate feedback.

Our eyes supply this feedback. Once our eyes determine what the result of our swing was, our mind begins to recognize what our body did to create that result.

Most people tend to look away, or completely move away, once they have hit their golf ball.

To learn a repetitive swing and to develop your feel, follow these three steps:

1. Keep your eyes on the ball until it has landed or stopped rolling. This includes occasions when you are chipping and putting.

2. Keep your hands on the golf club until the ball has landed or stopped rolling.

3. Keep your feet in the same position until it is time to look away from the ball.

frame to cruise to an 8-3 victory. The Cougars concluded pool play with a mercy-shortened 15-1 win over Newmarket. Jaclyn Dinetz surrendered just three hits to earn the win.

Soccer men get help from Azzurri

The Markham Soccer Club men's team benefited from an own goal scored by Woodbridge Azzurri en route to a 2-1 win in Ontario Soccer League action Friday at Mount Joy field.

Neill Mairs staked Markham to a 1-0 lead at the half with a goal near the 20-minute mark.

Azzurri tied the game early in the second half. But strong pressure from the Markham front line resulted in an Azzurri defender booting the ball back to the goalkeeper, who inadvertently let the ball get past him and into the net for the game-winning marker.

Now 2-1-1 on the season, the Markham team will host Bramalea Celtic tomorrow at 8:45 p.m. On Sunday, the Markham team will play a third-round Ontario Cup contest against Carleton Place at Mount Joy field starting at noon.

Club in sync at provincials

Coached by Lena Pedersen, the Markham 15-20 team of Leigh Ann Coady, Melissa Dermody, Danielle Hoey, Samantha Janetos, Taryn Kentner, Jennifer Kim, Julia McKay, Kelly McKay and Melanie McQuirter were second in the team event and first in routine.

Other second-place finishes went to the 11 and under duet team of Brittany Linton and Chelsey Matthews.
