

Town employees honoured

Whitchurch-Stouffville Town Council recognized long-term service of town employees at council Tuesday.

Winnie Layland, executive assistant to Mayor Wayne Emmerson, and firefighter Alan Fisco were both recognized for 20 years service.

Public Works department employees Blair Housser and Stephen Stark were recognized for 10 years service each.

Sacred music plays June 20

The Music Town Ontario Clocktower Theatre Group is presenting the 11th annual Sacred Music Festival at Stouffville's United Church June 30.

Music Town Ontario Award winner Ann Gage will be performing and receiving her award at the festival.

Get ready for summer reading

Children may want to start gearing up for the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library's summer reading program.

Starting the first week of July, the program encourages children to read a designated number of books over the summer at their own pace.

Details will be available soon at the library on Main Street.

If you know of a Stouffville resident who deserves recognition for an accomplishment or congratulations on a milestone, call Janet Richards at 642-3482. Milestone birthdays and anniversaries, academic awards and volunteer recognition are some of the items to call about.
