Make a Difference Working From Home

The York Region Children's Aid Society is seeking caring foster families who would enjoy the challenge of working with teens, medically fragile children, or children diagnosed with developmental challenges. As a Foster Family, you would be members of a team of professionals providing temporary or long term accommodations and support for children who are going through difficult times.

We provide full training, excellent support, daily per diem rates, and reimbursement of expenses. Providing a safe and nurturing environment for children in your Community who are in need could be one of the most significant happenings in your life.

For more information contact:
