

The School Fine Dining Excellence in Dining

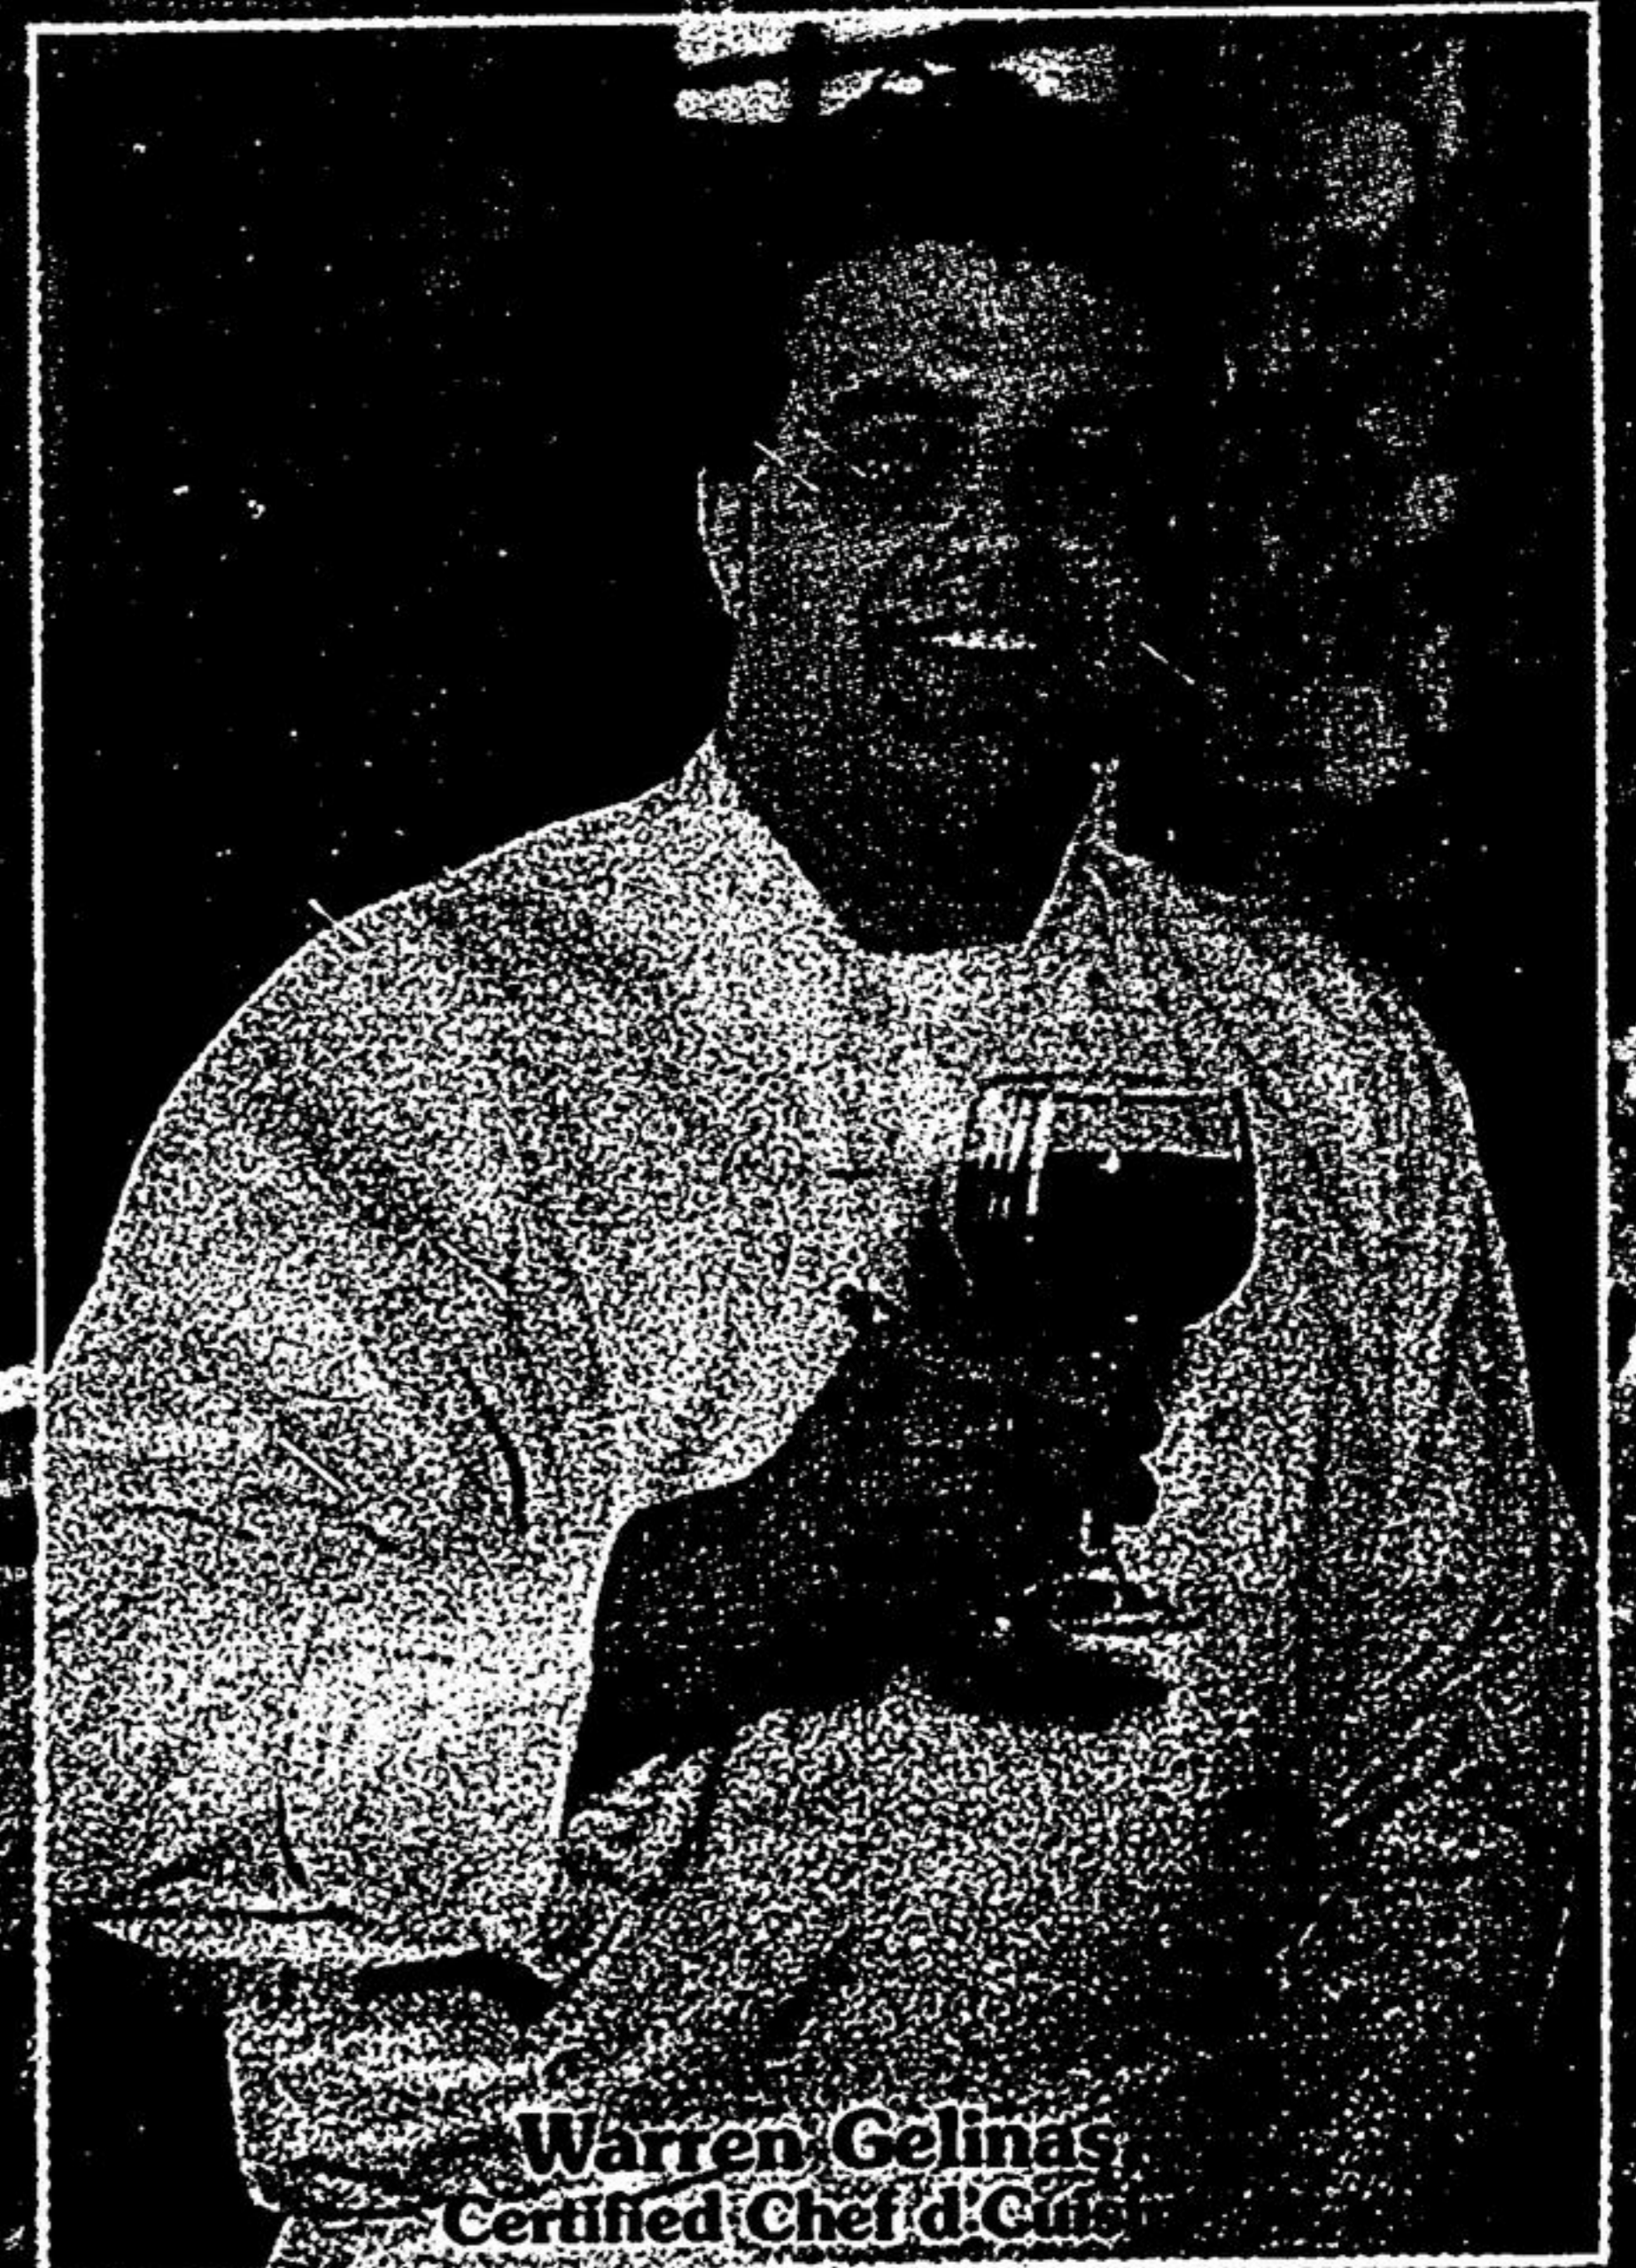

Fine dining still exists in Markham.

The School, housed in the former Hagerman Public School, offers people a place to go for excellent food, wonderful service and a fabulous atmosphere.

Owners, Nick and George Zarafonitis purchased the school house in 1989 and have turned it into a full dining steak and seafood house. They continue to emphasize a quality dining experience based on fresh and natural, fed ingredients and products.

Despite some major changes (including an addition and the newly opened patio), The School retains its Victorian charm.

Certified Chef d'Cuisine Warren Gelinas presents a dining experience where our guests can enjoy a romantic, candlelit dinner in the main dining room or enjoy a bottle of wine with friends in the jazz lounge. But regardless of the occasion, customers will receive first-class service from waiters who know how to make their guests feel completely at home.
