

Robber shoots pizzeria employee in knee

BY KATHLEEN GRIFFIN
Staff Writer

A pizzeria employee was shot in the knee Wednesday night by a would-be robber who fled empty handed.

The 29-year-old man was alone in Pasquali's Pizza in Vaughan at about 8:45 p.m. when a gunman stormed the store demanding cash.

Losing patience, the gunman fired several rounds inside the Islington Avenue location, hitting one employee in the left knee.

The suspect fled, while the employee was transported to Humber Regional Hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

The gunman is described as male black, about five feet, 11 inches tall, wearing a baseball cap and sunglasses.

Anyone with information is asked to call 881-1221, ext. 7873 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS.

Pot lab busted

York Regional Police busted a marijuana grow lab in King Township Wednesday, seizing pot with a street value of about $400,000.

Executing a Controlled Drugs and Substance Act warrant, police raided the Keele Street home at about 5:30 p.m.

They found 420 plants growing in a basement hydroponic lab and another 390 plants in a field behind the house.

Also seized were a 12-gauge shotgun, a 58B bolt-action rifle and two boxes of ammunition.

A 41-year-old King man is charged with possession for the purpose of trafficking and unsafe storage of firearms.

Gambling man

An assistant manager at a Richmond Hill Swiss Chalet is charged after more than $10,000 in receipts were never deposited.

After his wife reported him missing to Durham Regional Police in May, the man was discovered gambling.
