Woman assaulted after stepping off bus

BY KATHLEEN GRIFFIN

Staff Writer

A 28-year-old woman was sexually assaulted Saturday night, moments after stepping off a bus on Hwy. 7 in Vaughan.

The woman was walking west-bound on Hwy. 7, near Keele Street, about 11 p.m. when she realized she was being followed.

Before she could run away, the man behind her pulled a knife, dragged her into the ditch and sexually assaulted her.

He then fled in a black vehicle, with shiny rims.

He's described as a black male, five-feet, eight-inches tall, about 175 pounds. He has a goatee, was wearing a silver rope necklace, a blue sleeveless shirt, black, baggy jeans and dark shoes.

Anyone who may have been in the area at the time or who has information on this crime is urged to call York Regional Police at 881-1221, ext. 7071, or Crime Stoppers at 222-TIPS.

Man attacked in park

Police are trying to discover the motive in what seems to be an unprovoked attack on an 18-year-old in an Aurora park early Sunday morning.

The victim was beaten badly, suffering numerous cuts and bruises to his head and face during the assault in a park area near Child and Seaton drives.

The man was walking home after a party, when someone behind him yelled. He began to run but was tripped and, as he lay on the ground, a man punched and kicked him in the head.

York County Hospital staff notified police after the victim sought treatment for his injuries.

The assailant is described as male, about six-feet tall, with an average build.

Anyone with information is asked to call 881-1221.

Nabbed on pot charges

Three men are charged with trafficking marijuana after catching the attention of plainclothes officers staking out a commercial area in Vaughan.

Police first noticed a parked car in a lot near Hwy. 7 and Red Maple Road about 11 p.m. Saturday.

After approaching the vehicle and searching the car's driver and two other men who had been approaching the car, officers found $300 of pot and an undisclosed amount of cash.

Two North York men, 19 and 22, are charged with possession for the purpose of trafficking and possession of proceeds of crime. A 22-year-old Vaughan man faces the same charges.

Hat stolen at knifepoint

A 19-year-old man from Richmond Hill faces charges after a 13-year-old boy was threatened at knifepoint for his hat.

Police say the boy was approached by three suspects on bicycles in a Yonge Street plaza Friday about 8 p.m.

One of them produced a silver knife and demanded the victim surrender his hat. About an hour later, police investigating a group of youths hanging around nearby arrested three suspects.

A search revealed $100 worth of marijuana and at least one of the bikes was stolen.

The 19-year-old is charged with robbery, assault with a weapon, possession of a prohibited substance, possession of stolen property and two counts of breach of probation. Two others, a 17-year-old from Scarborough and an 18-year-old from Richmond Hill, are charged with robbery.
