

FESTIVAL OF FUN FOR BRAINCHILD

From classic cars to singers, from cartoon characters to food, Saturday's fundraising festival for Brainchild, a charity benefiting brain cancer research, was a sunny success. (Left) Andrea Bockus-Murphy takes a huge lick of ice cream as her god-mother Jackie Palmer looks on. (Above) Passersby take a closer look at this 1936 Plymouth. The vehicle was one of many classics on display at Markham Fairgrounds. (Right) Cheryl Pascal belts out the national anthem at the festival's opening ceremonies.

Dr. Robin Humphreys, chief neurosurgeon at the Hospital for Sick Children, talks to the audience about Brainchild and brain cancer at the fundraising festival Saturday at Markham Fairgrounds.
